7 Seek To Quit Cabinet

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Viet Nam's on-again-off-again political crisis exploded again today as seven southern civilian Cabinet members insisted today that Premier Nguyen Cao Ky accept their resignations immediately.

Ky was said to have accepted the resignations but was reported trying to win three or four of the ministers back and to fill the other vacancies with new men.

The dissident ministers' action appeared to doom efforts by Ky to patch up a facade of unity for the Manila conference on Viet Nam next week. He was expected to minimize the significance of the crisis at the Manila meeting but he will be unable to hide the fact that South Viet Nam is still wracked by unresolved political pains.

"There have been many crises," Ky told newsmen earlier this week. "One more or less doesn't make any difference."

But an announcement of the ministers' resignations, attributed to high government officials, also contained statements that could prove highly embarrassing to Ky at Manila and provide Communist North Viet Nam and the Viet Cong with propaganda fodder.

The ministers said they were concerned that South Viet Nam "is becoming a police state," that the military should "stop poking their noses into business they know nothing about," and that they had demanded "the government show some signs of accomplishing something to better the life of the people in general."

The dissident ministers, who said they put their resignations on Ky's desk this morning, included Deputy Premier Nguyen Luu Vien, and Finance Minister Au Truong Thanh, both members of South Viet Nam's delegation to the Manila meeting.

The crisis stems from resentment by South Vietnmese natives in the Cabinet against dormination of the government by men from North Viet Nam who came south after the Communists took over in 1954.

Ky and most of the military men who hold the real power are northerners. Civilians in the Cabinet, including most of the sutherners, have been confined largely to administrative roles.

Red Satellite A Mystery

Red Thrust Seen Timed At Elections

Would Come When 3 Nations Fighting In Viet Are Voting

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Some top U.S. military leaders in Saigon think North Viet Nam may time a new thrust across the demilitarized zone to coincide with elections next month in three countries fighting the Communists in South Viet Nam.

The objective could be to spur sentiment against the war in the United States, Australia and New Zealand.

The weather will be right for such a move. The monsoon rains already have started sweeping into the region where North and South Viet Nam meet.

Rainy, overcast weather is considered to favor the Communists because it cuts down U.S. air and helicopter operations.

After a period of heavy combat along the demilitarized zone, action has settled lately to sporadic contact and limited fighting.

American generals said the North Vietnamese apparently are trying to follow their customary practice of "preparing the battlefield" — stocking enough food and munitions close to the area to sustain a major effort.

"I think they're getting ready to give us a spin when the weather closes in," one senior Marine general said.

To guard against a North Vietnamese offensive, the Marines have rearranged their forces and concentrated the 3rd Marine Division in the threatened area, the two northernmost provinces of South Viet Nam.

More artillery has been brought up to strengthen the Marine ground defenses.

Another Marine division, the 1st, is deployed to the south and could supply support if a major North Vietnamese attack developed.

A U.S. Army paratrooper battalion has been moved into the previously all-Marine 1st Corps area, the northernmost tier of provinces, and is being held in reserve.

And said one key general, "We have contingency plans to reinforce 1st Corps," in event of a serious enemy assault.

He did not give details, but it is probable additional U.S. Army combat units would be shifted northward from other areas of South Viet Nam.

One more U.S. Army division — the fifth to be committed to the war — is expected to start arriving from the United States fairly soon, increasing American resources for manuevering.

North Viet Challenged

Asked To Spell Out Action If U.S. Halted Bombings

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States called on North Viet Nam Tuesday night to spell out what it would do if U.S. air attacks on the Communist state are called off.

U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg posed the challenge in the closing minutes of the General Assembly's marathon policy debate which has centered on the war in Viet Nam.

Replying to Communist and nonaligned member states who have been calling for a halt in the bombing as an essential preliminary to any peace negotiations, Goldberg said:

"We have considered this advance and having considered it, we would like to know from Hanoi privately or publicly what would happen if we followed it."

Replying to Communist demands for a withdrawal of U.S. troops in Viet Nam, he said:

"We have said repeatedly that we do not seek a permanent military presence in Viet Nam and have offered to agree to a time schedule for supervised, phased withdrawal of all external forces — those of North Viet Nam as well as those of the United States."

Goldberg noted that the United States had made a commitment to a political solution of the Viet Nam issue and stands ready to enter into immediate talks whether they be formal or informal, public or private.

"Similarly we have offered to take the first step toward deescalation: to order a prior end to all bombing of North Viet Nam the moment there is assurance that there would be a response from North Viet Nam," he said.

Goldberg said that the peace proposals the United States made before the assembly were genuine and "they remain open."

For four weeks, delegates from 108 member nations have chorused demands for an end to the fighting in Viet Nam. The tone of their speeches ranged from denunciations of the United States to appeals that Communist aggression be smashed in Southeast Asia.

The debate served as a sounding board for a variety of formulas designed to bring the issue from the battlefield to the bargaining table. There was no sign that any of them were acceptable to both sides in the struggle.

2 Reports Conflict On Soviet Craft

West German Sites Vary On Orbit; No Word From Reds

BERLIN (AP)—The Wilhelm Foerster Observatory in West Berlin said the Soviet Union launched a space satellite today but the observatory at Bochum said it had been in orbit since Monday.

A spokesman at Bochum, who discounted the earlier report, did not say how he knew the satellite was launched Monday. There has been no Soviet announcement of such a launching.

The spokesman at Wilhelm Foerster Observatory had said he could not tell if the satellite was manned but that it was sent up from the Soviet launching area at Baikonur in central Asia.

There have been reports from Communist sources that the Russians were planning a multi-man shot sometime this week.

Viet Cong Down 3 U.S. Copters

Communists Badly Maul South Forces In Delta

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Communist forces badly mauled South Vietnamese troops in a Mekong Delta battle today as seven Cabinet resignations shook the government in Saigon.

About 1,500 government troops were locked in heavy but inconclusive fighting against an estimated 1,000 Viet Cong 105 miles southwest of Saigon. Viet Cong gunners shot down three U.S. Army Huey helicopters and damaged several others in the early stages of the battle, which started Tuesday.

Elsewhere, the general lull persisted in ground fighting.

For the fourth straight day, monsoon rainstorms cut heavily into U.S. air blows over North Viet Nam Tuesday and American pilots flew only 44 bombing missions, about a quarter of the recent daily average.

The Cabinet resignations revived a government crisis brewing for two weeks which Ky had tried to put off until after the Manil conference on Viet Nam next week. Ky was further embarrassed because South Korean President Chung Hee Park is due Thursday on an official visit, and there were reports Park might postpone his visit or go direct to Qui Nhon, on the central coast, to visit Korean forces deployed there.

The Cabinet crisis is the result of long-standing resentment on the part of leaders from South Viet Nam at the domination of the government by natives of North Viet Nam, who include Ky and most of the generals who hold the government power.

The dissidents also charged there was widespread corruption in the government and that South Viet Nam was becoming a police state. Ky was said to have accepted the resignations but was reported trying to win three or four of the ministers back and to fill the other vacancies with new men.

A Vietnamese military spokesman said the Mekong Delta battle was continuing today with heavy contact. He said government casualties were moderate, indicating the South Vietnamese force was hard hit by the outnumbered Viet Cong.

After the U.S. helicopters supporting the South Vietnamese were hit, South Vietnamese Skyraider fighter-bombers were called in to bomb and strafe the vast marshland area long dominated by the Viet Cong.

Then U.S. Super Sabre jets joined the attack, and 38 allied planes raked the area.

U.S. B52 bombers struck today at North Vietnamese base camps and assembly areas just south of the demilitarized zone in northernmost Quang Tri Province.

Pilots attacking North Viet Nam Tuesday flew about 150 individual strikes, well below the 400 to 500 sorties they were flying daily less than a week ago. Most of the targets were in the southern panhandle.

High Court Stops Pennsy, NYC Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court has blocked the planned Nov. 1 merger of the Pennsylvnia and New York Central railroads pending the hearing of arguments on Jan. 9, and a final decision on various objections.

The merger thus will be delayed at least until mid-January, and probably much later depending on how fast the high tribunal can reach a decision and prepare its opinion or opinions.

The merger would create the nation's largest rail system with assets of more than $4 billion and nearly 20,000 miles of track.

The court issued a two-page printed statement Tuesday announcing its grant of a stay as requested by a group of railroads, eight Pennsylvania and New Jersey towns and Milton J. Shapp, Democratic candidate for governor of Pennsylvania.

Northeastern Congressional Districts

Canal, Federal Spending Seen Top Issues In Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP) — High among campaign issues in six northeastern Ohio congressional districts are the Lake Erie-Ohio River canal and Johnson Administration spending.

None of the races is rated close—even after redistricting—and political observers believe the incumbents, four Republicans and two Democrats, will return to Capitol Hill.

The canal issue figures in two districts most affected by it: the 11th, made up of Lake, Ashtabula, Geauga, Portage counties and part of Summit county; and the 19th, Trumbull County and part of Mahoning.

Michael J. Kirwan, 30-year Democratic incumbent in the 19th, and James F. Henderson, Democratic candidate in the 11th and a member of the Ohio Board of Education, favor the canal.

J. William Stanton, 42, of Painesville, Republican incumbent opposing Henderson, has said he wants more time to study reports before reaching a decision on the $948-million canal project.

Donald J. Lewis, a 60-year-old Mahoning County high school teacher running against Kirwan, has not made an issue of the canal. Kirwan, 79, of Youngstown, has long pushed for the canal bill. He is chairman of the Public Works Subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee and chairman of the powerful Democratic National Congressional Campaign Committee.

There is agreement between the 13th District candidates that the United States has a commitment in Viet Nam and should pursue it. They also take similar stands on federal spending. This district, including Erie, Huron, Lorain and Medina counties, is represented by Charles Adams Mosher, an eight-year Republican congressman. His opponent is a political newcomer, Thomas E. Wolfe III, 32, of Medina.

Mosher says the United States "must curb its 'messianic mania' to go charging helter-skelter all over the world doing good." The 60-year-old Oberlin congressman stresses need for self-help programs. He also believes the best way to check rising living costs is to curb federal spending.

William H. Ayres, 50, a 16-year congressman, drew some Republican strength in the past from Medina County, now cut from his 14th District which was redistricted to embody nearly all Summit County.

Ayres' Democratic opponent, Charles F. Madden Jr., 43, of Copley has charged Ayres has done nothing constructive in Congress and has been busy as "a public relations man for himself." Madden, a first-term Summit County commissioner and former state representative, says Ayres keeps his name before the public with stunts and gimmicks, and it's time for the district to have "responsible representation."

Crucible Sets Income Mark To Date In '66

PITTSBURGH — The Crucible Steel Co. has reported an all-time record income for the first nine months of 1966 of $9,636,000, or $2.26 per share.

For the corresponding period in 1965, income was $8,229,000, or $1.95 per share.

Earnings for the seasonally lower third quarter in 1966 were placed at $1,642,000, or 38 cents per share, up from $1,020,000 or 24 cents per share in 1965. The company said this was its best third quarter in more than 10 years.

The specialty steelmaker's sales were $238.5 million for nine months of 1966, down from $241.7 million the year before. Sales for the 1966 third quarter were $73.2 million, a third-quarter record, as against $69.5 million for 1965.

"The enrichment of our product mix through selective selling, and continued strong demand, were important factors contributing to higher earnings," Joel Hunter, Crucible president, said.

"Incoming orders have more than kept pace with shipments," he added, "and our current backlog of unfilled orders is quite substantial."

Colorful But Restrained

New Zealand Welcomes LBJ With Mixed Feelings

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — President Johnson got a colorful but restrained welcome to New Zealand today after leaving American soil 8,000 miles from Washington in exotic Pago Pago, a South Seas beauty spot never before visited by a U.S. chief executive.

Johnson's crowd in this capital city of New Zealand was quite small by campaign standards back home, numbering in the thousands rather than the tens of thousands. But the crowds were friendly and often enthusiastic.

For the President, the New Zealand stop represented an expression of friendship for a longtime U.S. ally and a return visit to a country where he spent some time as a Navy officer during World War II.

Pago Pago, in American Samoa, afforded Johnson an opportunity to call attention to a tiny island that he regards as a showplace for what can be done to boost the fortunes of a poor and rather primitive people.

By all odds, the Samoan stopover was the most colorful yet during the President's journey, which will take him to at least five more countries during the next 15 days.

The biggest crowd turned out Monday in Honolulu where perhaps 200,000 people gave Johnson a warm sendoff on his Asian "mission of hope" to meet with allies in the Viet Nam war and discuss prospects for a prospering, peaceful Asia after the guns fall silent.

Among those showing up for the President's arrival motorcade in Wellington were several hundred critics of the war, waving placards expressing their dissent. At one point along the route they filled nearly a full block.

$1.5 Million More Okayed For Schools

The Ohio Board of Control, meeting at Columbus this morning, approved an additional $1.5 million for the East Liverpool school building program.

The money was sought by the Board of Education here to cover the increased costs of construction of four new school buildings for which bids have been received.

The total amount authorized this morning for the school work was $1,533,087, the board of control said.

In another phase of the program, the board yesterday forwarded to the state Board of Education at Columbus bids on plumbing received for the proposed new high school.

Conti Plumbing and Heating, Inc., of Lowellville, near Youngstown, submitted the low bid of $275,000.

The only other bid was one of $324,700 from the H. E. Neuman Co. of Wheeling.

Six companies took out specifications, but at the 1 p. m. deadline yesterday only the two bids had been received.

End War And Get Out Quick, Minshall Asks

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Let's end the war in Viet Nam and get out of there on an honorable basis as quick as possible," Rep. William E. Minshall, R - Ohio, said Tuesday in cautioning President Johnson against making "financial giveaways" during his Far Eastern trip.

"With Americans hard-pressed to meet their tax obligations and buy meat and potatoes, this is no time to give away money we don't have to people who are getting along without it," Minshall said in a statement to the House.

GE Workers Returning To Jobs In Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP) — Obeying a federal court order, more than 6,000 employes were returning to their jobs today at a General Electric Co. plant near Cincinnati, Ohio, that produces jet engines for a type of warplane used extensively in Viet Nam.

The Defense Department was reported keeping tabs on strikes at eight other GE plants in five states to see if any of these stoppages is slowing war production.

U.S. Dist. Judge Carl A. Weinman issued a temporary injunction in Dayton, Ohio, Tuesday ordering the striking workers at the Evendale, Ohio, GE plant back to their jobs. Acting on a request initiated by President Johnson under the Taft-Hartley Act the judge halted the walkout for an 80-day cooling-off period.

The White House said Johnson plans no action now against strikes at the eight other GE plants that have idled about 25,000 workers. It said the Pentagon is keeping an eye on the situation.

Paul J. Lemal Resigns Post As Patrolman

Patrolman Paul J. Lemal today submitted his resignation from the police department to Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey, effective Oct. 31, explaining that he plans to retire after more than 25 years' service.

Oldest officer on the force in point of service, Lemal has served for many years as the day - turn deskman at headquarters.

Appointed to the force by former Mayor O. Earl Greenawalt, he has served under four chiefs —Hugh J. McDermott, L. J. Wise, John Russell and A. J. Radeschi, present head of the department. He resides at 234 W. 9th St.

The police department has its own pension system, administered locally and separate from the retirement plan of other public employes.

Vodrey pointed out that Lemal's retirement will leave the department with three vacancies in patrolmen's posts. Two of the jobs have been vacant a year or more.

The department has an authorized strength of 26, including 21 patrolmen, three lieutenants, a captain and a chief.

Nobel Peace Prize For 1966 Withheld

OSLO, Norway (AP) — The Norwegian Nobel Committee decided after a two-hour meeting today not to award the Nobel Peace Prize for 1966.

It was the first time in 10 years the peace prize had been withheld and the 11th time since the award was established in 1901 under the will of Alfred Nobel, Swedish inventor of dynamite.

Asked To Spell Out Action If U.S. Halted Bombings

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States called on North Viet Nam Tuesday night to spell out what it would do if U. S. air attacks on the Communist state are called off.

U. S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg posed the challenge in the closing minutes of the General Assembly's marathon policy debate which has centered on the war in Viet Nam.

Replying to Communist and nonaligned member states who have been calling for a halt in the bombing as an essential preliminary to any peace negotiations, Goldberg said:

The merger thus will be delayed at least until mid-January, and probably much later depending on how fast the high tribunal can reach a decision and prepare its opinion or opinions.

Canal, Federal Spending Seen Top Issues In Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP) — High among campaign issues in six northeastern Ohio congressional districts are the Lake Erie-Ohio River canal and Johnson Administration spending.

None of the races is rated close—even after redistricting—and political observers believe the incumbents, four Republicans and two Democrats, will return to Capitol Hill.

Donald J. Lewis, a 60-year-old Mahoning County high school teacher running against Kirwan, has not made an issue of the canal. Kirwan, 79, of Youngstown, has long pushed for the canal bill. He is chairman of the Public Works Subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee and chairman of the powerful Democratic National Congressional Campaign Committee.

William H. Ayres, 50, a 16-year congressman, drew some Republican strength in the past from Medina County, now cut from his 14th District which was redistricted to embody nearly all Summit County.

Ayres' Democratic opponent, Charles F. Madden Jr., 43, of Copley has charged Ayres has done nothing constructive in Congress and has been busy as "a public relations man for himself." Madden, a first-term Summit County commissioner and former state representative, says Ayres keeps his name before the public with stunts and gimmicks, and it's time for the district to have "responsible representation."

Crucible Sets Income Mark To Date In '66

PITTSBURGH — The Crucible Steel Co. has reported an all-time record income for the first nine months of 1966 of $9,636,000, or $2.26 per share.

For the corresponding period in 1965, income was $8,229,000, or $1.95 per share.

Earnings for the seasonally lower third quarter in 1966 were placed at $1,642,000, or 38 cents per share, up from $1,020,000 or 24 cents per share in 1965. The company said this was its best third quarter in more than 10 years.

The specialty steelmaker's sales were $238.5 million for nine months of 1966, down from $241.7 million the year before. Sales for the 1966 third quarter were $73.2 million, a third-quarter record, as against $69.5 million for 1965.

"The enrichment of our product mix through selective selling, and continued strong demand, were important factors contributing to higher earnings," Joel Hunter, Crucible president, said.

"Incoming orders have more than kept pace with shipments," he added, "and our current backlog of unfilled orders is quite substantial."

Paul J. Lemal Resigns Post As Patrolman

Patrolman Paul J. Lemal today submitted his resignation from the police department to Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey, effective Oct. 31, explaining that he plans to retire after more than 25 years' service.

Oldest officer on the force in point of service, Lemal has served for many years as the day - turn deskman at headquarters.

Appointed to the force by former Mayor O. Earl Greenawalt, he has served under four chiefs —Hugh J. McDermott, L. J. Wise, John Russell and A. J. Radeschi, present head of the department. He resides at 234 W. 9th St.

The police department has its own pension system, administered locally and separate from the retirement plan of other public employes.

Vodrey pointed out that Lemal's retirement will leave the department with three vacancies in patrolmen's posts. Two of the jobs have been vacant a year or more.

The department has an authorized strength of 26, including 21 patrolmen, three lieutenants, a captain and a chief.

Colorful But Restrained

New Zealand Welcomes LBJ With Mixed Feelings

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — President Johnson got a colorful but restrained welcome to New Zealand today after leaving American soil 8,000 miles from Washington in exotic Pago Pago, a South Seas beauty spot never before visited by a U.S. chief executive.

Johnson's crowd in this capital city of New Zealand was quite small by campaign standards back home, numbering in the thousands rather than the tens of thousands. But the crowds were friendly and often enthusiastic.

For the President, the New Zealand stop represented an expression of friendship for a longtime U.S. ally and a return visit to a country where he spent some time as a Navy officer during World War II.

Pago Pago, in American Samoa, afforded Johnson an opportunity to call attention to a tiny island that he regards as a showplace for what can be done to boost the fortunes of a poor and rather primitive people.

By all odds, the Samoan stopover was the most colorful yet during the President's journey, which will take him to at least five more countries during the next 15 days.

The biggest crowd turned out Monday in Honolulu, where perhaps 200,000 people gave Johnson a warm sendoff on his Asian "mission of hope" to meet with allies in the Viet Nam war and discuss prospects for a prospering, peaceful Asia after the guns fall silent.

Among those showing up for the President's arrival motorcade in Wellington were several hundred critics of the war, waving placards expressing their dissent. At one point along the route they filled nearly a full block.

$1.5 Million More Okayed For Schools

The Ohio Board of Control, meeting at Columbus this morning, approved an additional $1.5 million for the East Liverpool school building program.

The money was sought by the Board of Education here to cover the increased costs of construction of four new school buildings for which bids have been received.

The total amount authorized this morning for the school work was $1,533,087, the board of control said.

In another phase of the program, the board yesterday forwarded to the state Board of Education at Columbus bids on plumbing received for the proposed new high school.

Conti Plumbing and Heating, Inc., of Lowellville, near Youngstown, submitted the low bid of $275,000.

The only other bid was one of $324,700 from the H. E. Neuman Co. of Wheeling.

Six companies took out specifications, but at the 1 p. m. deadline yesterday only the two bids had been received.

End War And Get Out Quick, Minshall Asks

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Let's end the war in Viet Nam and get out of there on an honorable basis as quick as possible," Rep. William E. Minshall, R - Ohio, said Tuesday in cautioning President Johnson against making "financial giveaways" during his Far Eastern trip.

"With Americans hard-pressed to meet their tax obligations and buy meat and potatoes, this is no time to give away money we don't have to people who are getting along without it," Minshall said in a statement to the House.

GE Workers Returning To Jobs In Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP) — Obeying a federal court order, more than 6,000 employes were returning to their jobs today at a General Electric Co. plant near Cincinnati, Ohio, that produces jet engines for a type of warplane used extensively in Viet Nam.

The Defense Department was reported keeping tabs on strikes at eight other GE plants in five states to see if any of these stoppages is slowing war production.

U.S. Dist. Judge Carl A. Weinman issued a temporary injunction in Dayton, Ohio, Tuesday ordering the striking workers at the Evendale, Ohio, GE plant back to their jobs. Acting on a request initiated by President Johnson under the Taft-Hartley Act the judge halted the walkout for an 80-day cooling-off period.

The White House said Johnson plans no action now against strikes at the eight other GE plants that have idled about 25,000 workers. It said the Pentagon is keeping an eye on the situation.

Nobel Peace Prize For 1966 Withheld

OSLO, Norway (AP) — The Norwegian Nobel Committee decided after a two-hour meeting today not to award the Nobel Peace Prize for 1966.

It was the first time in 10 years the peace prize had been withheld and the 11th time since the award was established in 1901 under the will of Alfred Nobel, Swedish inventor of dynamite.

Police, fearing a full-scale riot in the racially mixed area, called out reinforcements. A 10 p.m. juvenile curfew was authorized. Order was restored after three hours.

Boy Scouts, Cubs In County To Assist In Goodwill Drive

"Operation Good Turn For Goodwill Industries" has been launched by troops and Cub packs of Columbiana Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The campaign will be climaxed Saturday with the collection of clothing and other small items.

All of East Liverpool—except the East End—Glenmoor, Calcutta, Chester and Newell will be covered, Scout officials said. The East End will be canvassed at a later date when more trucks and boys are available.

Those with items which they wish to donate to Goodwill Industries are requested to place them in sacks and boxes and place them in front of their property. Those in charge said the pickup will begin about 9:30 a. m. Saturday.

They ask residents "to make sure the items to be collected are clearly marked and not mixed in with other things which are not to be taken." It was pointed out that hardware items cannot be received at this time.

Bags for use in the drive are available at Goodwill stores. The Scouts also will have some available as they make their rounds. The Goodwill Industries store here is located at 617 St. Clair Ave.

Scout officials explained that if you have an unusual amount of articles to be picked up, call the store, take them to the store yourself or drop them in one of the collection boxes which will be placed in the areas to be covered.

Goodwill trucks then will take the materials collected to the Goodwill Center at Youngstown.

Lisbon's collection will be stored at St. George Parish and the Salem collection at the City Hall.

Red China To Get Rap?

The diplomatic eyes of the world are zeroing in on Moscow this week as East European Communist leaders gather for talks.

Speculation is high that Red China is going to get a rap on the knuckles in the form of a joint condemnation.

Such a move would open the door to a number of possibilities. Some are not pleasant.

Being rejected by both the West and Communist countries would make Red China a true outcast.

Communist Chinese leaders have been building up to the lone wolf role since the end of World War II.

They have not been able to agree with Russia on interpretation of Marx and Lennin and have aspired to become the seat of "true Communism."

The Russian policy of peaceful coexistence, adopted in 1956, stuck in the throat of Red China and drove a wedge between the nations.

In the past decade, Red China has put some weight behind its paper tiger image with continued development of nuclear power.

It is, of course, a matter of conjecture how Red China might react to a slap from the Moscow gathering, but it's a cinch the affront would not be taken lightly.

In assessing how such an action from Moscow could affect the United States, we get a hint by remembering three pillars of Red China's philosophy:

(1) The struggle between socialism and capitalism has not been changed by the advent of nuclear weapons;

(2) Genuine peace cannot be assured while imperialism survives;

(3) Socialism's final victory cannot be attained without war.

It's Not Funny!

Boys will be boys, but when they get out of bounds to the point where they're endangering their lives, the lives of others and infringing on private property, they must be ready to accept the consequences of their rash actions.

Arrests are in order when necessary to help curb the disturbances which have created serious complaints in the E. 3rd St. area near the Chester bridge.

Fun is fun, but some of the things that have been happening have gone beyond the fun stage.

Teens Proved Their Point

All young people tired of hearing about how soft they are can point with pride to the accomplishment of a Michigan group.

A hardy crew of 25 high school students spent 72 hours in a northern Michigan wilderness last weekend.

The youngsters did not take food or weapons with them.

They lived by their wits.

They ate porcupine roast and broth topped off with roasted rye kernels and apples.

A thunderstorm added to their adventure.

A psychology teacher who led the expedition said the students worked together to conquer nature.

This teacher proved something in 72 hours that might have taken years in a classroom.

Our pioneering forefathers knew the value of pulling together and sharing hardships because that's how they survived.

It is tough to put into a textbook the feeling of kinship that grows when a common problem is tackled and defeated in a group effort.

This group of students from a Detroit suburb took time out from the normal teen-age routine to prove something to others and to themselves.

They got their point across.

Who Designs The Model?

One of the slickest phrases around is "model cities." The "model cities" bill being whooped through Congress with a $1.17 billion whopper attached to it evokes rosy images.

The images are not all the same, however. No one knows what a model city is.

The few who are arrogant enough to claim they know are nearly all of the demolition school of urban improvement — push down everything they don't approve of and put up something they do approve of.

This usually takes the form of institutional-type apartment buildings, which to some minds should contain. They have all the warmth and charm of the acres of black top which surround them so the denizens will have someplace to leave their cars.

Fortunately, not everybody thinks the same about a model city. There even are some thinkers who take a cue from the animal kingdom at large and think comfort and security should come before straight-line austerity and hygienic simplicity.

These kooks think a model lower-class neighborhood, for example, would be comprised of moderately shabby dwellings containing moderately shabby neighbors able to live within their means in surroundings suitable to their cultural background.

They would no more dream of a model city in terms of institutional cubicles than of an endless corridor of wire cages for dogs.

These institutionalists will have to be watched under a model cities law, or they will use the money to build cages instead of dwellings suitable for human habitation.

Compromise

By Edmond Le Breton

WASHINGTON

You read that the House passed today a compromise bill to do so and so and you have a curious feeling that you read this story before, not long ago.

If you are a consistent reader of national news, you may be having that little tickle of memory more often and more often as the House and Senate plow through the remaining business to end a Congress' two-year work this week.

Your memory is not tricking you. You have read something very similar, not long ago. What you are reading now is, technically, action on reports of conference committees.

HERE IS A rundown on the operation of such committees, made necessary by the makeup of Congress — a co-equal House of Representatives and Senate.

Obviously there will be times when a bill that started in one chamber will be amended by the other, or when the two chambers, starting separately, will produce different versions of legislation on the same subject.

When this happens, the originating chamber, House or Senate, has the choice of accepting the changes made by its opposite number or asking for a conference to try to adjust the differences.

Most major bills and most minor ones that are at all controversial go through the conference process. It follows from this that most of the important laws are written, in their final form at least, by a relatively small group of senior congressmen and senators.

A conference committee traditionally is made up of senior members of both parties, from the Senate and the House committees that handled the legislation. The majority party, at present the Democrats, has a majority of the conferees.

CONFERENCES can be long and frustrating. The amendment made by one chamber to another's bill frequently is a total amendment — everything after the formal enacting clause is replaced by an entirely different legislative draft.

The Senate or the House may limit its conferees' freedom to negotiate by voting to instruct them not to give in on this or that point.

The House has a strict rule of germaneness—an amendment must relate clearly to the subject of the bill. The Senate has no effective rule of this sort. So the Senate has learned to hitch an entirely different bill — as an "amendment" — to an unrelated bill sent to it by the House. This is a handy way to rescue a bill that has fallen into the hands of an unfriendly committee or is otherwise held up at some procedural roadblock.

Somehow, conferences usually result in agreement and in reports which in turn are approved by the House and Senate — a process ordinarily spoken of as passing a compromise bill.

THIS SUGGESTS a little arithmetic that may reassure taxpayers who think Congress always acts hastily. A major program, foreign aid, for example, or housing, normally requires enactment of two bills, and the process goes like this:

The House passes an authorization bill setting the limit that may be spent. The Senate passes it, amended. There is a conference, which produces a report. The Senate and the House both approve the report. So far, four votes.

Then there is an appropriation bill actually providing the money. Same procedure. Total votes: eight.

Not necessarily perfect law-making — but not headlong haste, either.

Don't Look Now, But . . .

By Truman Twill

You think all the clothing news this year has been made with mini-skirts?

You forget mini-pants.

They are no good for cheese-cake art. There's nothing sexy about them.

But in their way, which is super skimpy, mini-pants can be as exciting as mini-skirts.

They are a logistical challenge, for a somewhat different reason. The problem with the skirt is to make what little there is of it seem to be doing what a skirt should do, but provocatively.

The problem with the pants is to make too little fabric do what a full-blown pair of pants should do—but not disastrously.

It is possible in mini-pants to slit the things open from waistband to equator with one ill-advised move getting into or out of an auto.

It is possible to court disaster in mini-pants while bending over to pick up a lady's handkerchief.

Men have been popped out of mini-pants while rising from a chair to greet visiting nobility or to get a better perspective on a super-mini-skirt on a super blonde.

Mini-pants can be public disasters.

They can be private disasters.

Men have spavined themselves teetering on one foot in the process of inching off a pair of mini-pants over a size 12 foot.

Mature specimens who learned to wear pants in a happier era have brought on sacro-iliac sprains because they peel off a pair of mini-pants before removing their shoes.

It is impossible to conceal anything thicker than a piece of folded tissue paper in the pocket of a pair of mini-pants.

But mini-pants are no laughing matter.

Photographers don't take pictures of them. The opposite sex doesn't ogle them. But for the slobs who must wear them, they are the most exciting thing since some fool Scotsman invented them and the mini-skirt at one and the same time.

Then the Scotsman let women steal the mini-skirt—and what was left is what mini-pants will come to if men aren't careful.

LBJ's Gotham Mission Reviewed

NEW YORK — When I was out in the Midwest recently, standing among cheering crowds, some wag looked skyward and shouted, "It's a bird. It's a plane. It's Superman." It was none of these. It was Bob Kennedy in his chartered aircraft.

Victor Riesel

Meanwhile back at the White House, Lyndon Johnson was working with more plebeian, though far quieter machinery — the labor movement's political action mechanism.

The President fully knows—and the public hardly does—that today the labor leaders have the only national political apparatus in the country. It's one of the few, if not the only, centralized and coordinated effective coast-to-coast organization.

That accounts for Mr. Johnson's swinging into the New York megalopolis during one of the few precious days which were available before his scheduled Asian trip.

AT LEAST ONE White House insider traces LBJ's political flier to a long discussion between the President of the U.S. and George Meany, the president of the AFL-CIO, in LBJ's office beginning at 11:30 on Sept. 21.

The President had asked his aide, Marvin Watson, a most influential figure even in some labor circles these days, to invite Meany in for a personal talk. Obviously it was nothing that could be handled on the phone.

Of course Meany came, and they talked — mostly the President, according to reports — about labor's action in general ("across the board") and in some specific races in particular.

White House people have no doubt that Meany's pledges of support were made. This did comfort the President. He has great faith in the delivery power of labor's political day by day activity, albeit unpublicized.

The President prizes this more than the spectacular. He has good reason to know its strength and how superior it is to the noise of jumpers and squealers at airports.

THERE IS ONE untold story which is evidence of his respect for labor's political machinery. Recently he threw the entire administration's weight, the in-fighting talents of Postmaster General Larry O'Brien and his (LBJ) own inherent parliamentary wizardry, into a fight against the establishment of an independent maritime agency. To kill off the possibility of such a bureau, the President needed just one small clause put in the transportation bill.

Bucking the President was a coalition of labor leaders who look to Paul Hall, the seafarers' chief, for guidance. This coalition rarely makes the headlines. If it does make news, it's on the ship page.

Yet so infulential is Paul Hall that his congressional combine beat the President in the House and Senate by checkmating and outvoting each White House maneuver.

At one point in the long duel, the President had some 70 labor leaders in for dinner. He asked Meany to slip over to Paul Hall's table and say, in effect, wait now, I'm getting up a three-man committee to talk with you and see if we can't comprise this thing.

HALL IS AN INDEPENDENT sailor, and he believes an independent maritime board would be good for his sailors. So he fought the President and beat him in the Senate.

What gives Paul Hall his strength? He is a quiet man. But an organization man. His people are the bedrock of laborite political organization ranging from New Orleans and Mobile to Los Angeles, the Great Lakes cities and of course New York, where the Seafarers' International Union has its headquarters.

Thus in scores of congressional districts — and states, too — when a senator or a representative needs help, money, manpower, car pools, telephone squads, the word goes out over Hall's telex system or through the central city bodies. The friendly congressman gets the aid and the votes at election time and he stays friendly even if the showdown is between the president and Hall, or between the White House and the national labor machine.

BUT IN ONE STATE labor's political apparatus did split wide open. That's here in New York where the Democratic machine is rent between the Kennedy forces and Johnson's stalwarts.

Furthermore, Governor Rockefeller has been more Democrat than Republican. He has accepted support from such disparate forces as organized garbage collectors and even the tough and frequently denounced William De Konig, leader of the Long Island Operating Engineers which was in so much difficulty a few years ago.

So when word came that many of the most active labor politicoes — especially in the needle trades — had defected from the Democrats, Mr. Johnson decided to swoop in and help the labor loyalists as they have been helping him.

The President wants to keep labor's national political power intact. If he teaches the defectors a lesson, there will be unity in 1968.

The U.S. Patent Office has news for those who say no one has an original idea any more.

The office is being swamped in a sea of paper used to process the 70,000 patent applications in the past fiscal year.

The paper work has grown so great since the office issued three patents in its first year of operation (1790), that a microfilm process is being installed to ease the crush.

Some idea of the backlog of work is shown by the length of time it takes to acquire a patent.

The average time of processing has been reduced from 3½ to 2½ years and the goal is 18 months by 1970.

So be careful when you use the well-worn greeting: What's new? You may not have time to hear 70,000 answers.

Discontent

By David Lawrence

It Can Hurt Party In Power

Discontent throughout the country at election time can hurt the party in power, and there's plenty of discontent accumulating today. But to call it "white backlash" is misleading.

There's a "black backlash" too and a "housewife's backlash." All this is reflected in the large number of Democratic voters classified in the polls today as "undecided" because they dislike to reveal their feelings. Many will be casting ballots in the Republican column when they get to the voting booth.

Causes of nationwise discontent have not been accurately appraised by Democratic leaders, including President Johnson.

He rightly urges "tolerance" on the race issue, but apparently he doesn't realize that racial prejudice, while considerable, is by no means the real cause of the prevalent unrest. Nor is "poverty," "lack of education," "slum conditions" or any of the other seemingly plausible reasons that have been offered as explanations for the discontent.

There are probably more Americans in the South who are "tolerant" of Negroes than there are in the North. It depends, of course, on what is meant by "tolerance."

The people of the South have lived with Negroes for decades, and the many instances of deep friendship and assistance cannot be brushed off as exceptional or as a relic of the "master and slave" relationship.

Negroes who are good citizens and are considerate of others in the community get along with whites in the South, and the respect is mutual. Also, there are plenty of Negroes who deplore street demonstrations and riots and the emphasis on racial consciousness such as has been intensified by cries for "black power."

REAL CAUSE of friction today is the federal government trying to produce conformity by coercion-as for instance, the enforced integration of public schools by busing children to and from distant neighborhoods.

"Open housing," which failed of passage in Congress this session, is as much resented in the rest of the country as in the South. Are all those who object "bigots" or "racists," or are they people who feel that the readjustment of housing conditions cannot be worked out precipitately and has to take time?

The racial problem, however, is by no means the main factor in the so-called "backlash." Discontent over many other adverse developments in American life will be responsible for the defeat of certain members of Congress in both parties. The tendency naturally will be to vote against the "ins."

What is the "backlash" or protest movement really based upon? Here are some of the components that may turn millions of votes from the party in power:

First, there is the crime wave. People are fearful of attack in their own homes at night. Women are afraid to venture across the street to visit a neighbor. What has the administration done about it?

Billions of dollars have been appropriated for social welfare, and some of the projects have been to a certain extent necessary. But many voters are asking: Couldn't a few billions have been set aside for a nationwide system of law enforcement especially concentrated in the state and local governments?

Second, the Viet Nam War. This involves a mixed reaction. The discontent, however, is substantial. Although many voters think the administration has done as well as could be expected with this tough problem, others feel it has not been vigorous enough from the start. No war is ever popular with the voters.

Third, the cost of living stands out as a prime cause of unrest. Prices have risen and costly strikes have been called to try to keep up with the upward curve of living costs.

THERE ARE other grievances, but to blame it all on racial friction and to describe the discontent as merely "white backlash" is to fail to see the forest for the trees in present day politics.

Not always is the protest vote as big in off-year elections for Congress as it is in presidential-campaign years. It is clear that if Mr. Johnson were running in November he would have a hard time winning. Numerous polls support such an analysis.

Yet so infulential is Paul Hall that his congressional combine beat the President in the House and Senate by checkmating and outvoting each White House maneuver.

At one point in the long duel, the President had some 70 labor leaders in for dinner. He asked Meany to slip over to Paul Hall's table and say, in effect, wait now, I'm getting up a three-man committee to talk with you and see if we can't comprise this thing.

HALL IS AN INDEPENDENT sailor, and he believes an independent maritime board would be good for his sailors. So he fought the President and beat him in the Senate.

What gives Paul Hall his strength? He is a quiet man. But an organization man. His people are the bedrock of laborite political organization ranging from New Orleans and Mobile to Los Angeles, the Great Lakes cities and of course New York, where the Seafarers' International Union has its headquarters.

Thus in scores of congressional districts — and states, too — when a senator or a representative needs help, money, manpower, car pools, telephone squads, the word goes out over Hall's telex system or through the central city bodies. The friendly congressman gets the aid and the votes at election time and he stays friendly even if the showdown is between the president and Hall, or between the White House and the national labor machine.

BUT IN ONE STATE labor's political apparatus did split wide open. That's here in New York where the Democratic machine is rent between the Kennedy forces and Johnson's stalwarts.

Furthermore, Governor Rockefeller has been more Democrat than Republican. He has accepted support from such disparate forces as organized garbage collectors and even the tough and frequently denounced William De Konig, leader of the Long Island Operating Engineers which was in so much difficulty a few years ago.

So when word came that many of the most active labor politicoes — especially in the needle trades — had defected from the Democrats, Mr. Johnson decided to swoop in and help the labor loyalists as they have been helping him.

The President wants to keep labor's national political power intact. If he teaches the defectors a lesson, there will be unity in 1968.

The U.S. Patent Office has news for those who say no one has an original idea any more.

The office is being swamped in a sea of paper used to process the 70,000 patent applications in the past fiscal year.

The paper work has grown so great since the office issued three patents in its first year of operation (1790), that a microfilm process is being installed to ease the crush.

Some idea of the backlog of work is shown by the length of time it takes to acquire a patent.

The average time of processing has been reduced from 3½ to 2½ years and the goal is 18 months by 1970.

So be careful when you use the well-worn greeting: What's new? You may not have time to hear 70,000 answers.

Discontent

By David Lawrence

It Can Hurt Party In Power

Discontent throughout the country at election time can hurt the party in power, and there's plenty of discontent accumulating today. But to call it "white backlash" is misleading.

There's a "black backlash" too and a "housewife's backlash." All this is reflected in the large number of Democratic voters classified in the polls today as "undecided" because they dislike to reveal their feelings. Many will be casting ballots in the Republican column when they get to the voting booth.

Causes of nationwise discontent have not been accurately appraised by Democratic leaders, including President Johnson.

He rightly urges "tolerance" on the race issue, but apparently he doesn't realize that racial prejudice, while considerable, is by no means the real cause of the prevalent unrest. Nor is "poverty," "lack of education," "slum conditions" or any of the other seemingly plausible reasons that have been offered as explanations for the discontent.

There are probably more Americans in the South who are "tolerant" of Negroes than there are in the North. It depends, of course, on what is meant by "tolerance."

The people of the South have lived with Negroes for decades, and the many instances of deep friendship and assistance cannot be brushed off as exceptional or as a relic of the "master and slave" relationship.

Negroes who are good citizens and are considerate of others in the community get along with whites in the South, and the respect is mutual. Also, there are plenty of Negroes who deplore street demonstrations and riots and the emphasis on racial consciousness such as has been intensified by cries for "black power."

REAL CAUSE of friction today is the federal government trying to produce conformity by coercion-as for instance, the enforced integration of public schools by busing children to and from distant neighborhoods.

"Open housing," which failed of passage in Congress this session, is as much resented in the rest of the country as in the South. Are all those who object "bigots" or "racists," or are they people who feel that the readjustment of housing conditions cannot be worked out precipitately and has to take time?

The racial problem, however, is by no means the main factor in the so-called "backlash." Discontent over many other adverse developments in American life will be responsible for the defeat of certain members of Congress in both parties. The tendency naturally will be to vote against the "ins."

What is the "backlash" or protest movement really based upon? Here are some of the components that may turn millions of votes from the party in power:

First, there is the crime wave. People are fearful of attack in their own homes at night. Women are afraid to venture across the street to visit a neighbor. What has the administration done about it?

Billions of dollars have been appropriated for social welfare, and some of the projects have been to a certain extent necessary. But many voters are asking: Couldn't a few billions have been set aside for a nationwide system of law enforcement especially concentrated in the state and local governments?

Second, the Viet Nam War. This involves a mixed reaction. The discontent, however, is substantial. Although many voters think the administration has done as well as could be expected with this tough problem, others feel it has not been vigorous enough from the start. No war is ever popular with the voters.

Third, the cost of living stands out as a prime cause of unrest. Prices have risen and costly strikes have been called to try to keep up with the upward curve of living costs.

THERE ARE other grievances, but to blame it all on racial friction and to describe the discontent as merely "white backlash" is to fail to see the forest for the trees in present day politics.

Not always is the protest vote as big in off-year elections for Congress as it is in presidential-campaign years. It is clear that if Mr. Johnson were running in November he would have a hard time winning. Numerous polls support such an analysis.

Legislators Return To Campaigns

Pennsylvania Consumer Credit Measure Passed

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania legislators returned to their campaigning today after pausing to give final approval to the controversial consumer credit bill, which, for the first time in Pennsylvania, would protect consumers who buy items on the installment plan.

But a representative who sponsored the original House version of the bill, and an official of the Pennsylvania AFL-CIO who has been one of the most powerful supporters of consumer credit legislation said they are not completely satisfied with the measure.

Both said they would push for amendments to strengthen it when the legislature returns next year.

The legislators, who interrupted their five - week recess to act on the bill, passed it by a vote of 203-1 in the House and 47-0 in the Senate.

Rep. Peter T. Dumbauld, D-Somerset, cast the lone negative vote. He was not immediately available for comment.

The bill now goes to Gov. Scranton, who is expected to sign it. It would go into effect April 1.

Its passage ended six months of legislative hassling, which began when the Democratic - controlled House passed the original bill June 28.

The Republican - Controlled Senate drastically amended the bill, before passing it.

The House refused to concur in the amendments, and the measure was turned over to a joint conference committee which reached a compromise during a single meeting Oct. 8.

The bill, would limit annual interest charges on goods and services bought on installment plans to 15 per cent.

Autos, homes and home improvements would not be included, since these purchases are covered by other state laws.

Merchants, in most cases, would be required to provide consumers with detailed, written contracts disclosing all credit charges. The charges would have to be printed in large, bold type.

Out - of - state firms would come under the law if they sell merchandise in Pennsylvania.

Violation of the proposed law would be a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 or not more than one year in prison, or both.

Rep. C. L. Schmitt, D-Westmoreland, chief sponsor of the original House bill had urged passage of the compromise, saying although it is not everything I hope for, it is a good bill. It is a great improvement over nothing."

Later, however, he said he would push for improvements when the 1967 general assembly convenes in January.

"I have a bill already prepared which would do away with confession of judgment before default," he said.

A confession of judgment is a legal term that means the buyer signs a statement saying in advance he has not paid for the merchandise or service for which he has contracted. It may be executed in court the day he misses a payment.

Mike Johnson, vice president of the Pennsylvania AFL-CIO, also said he considered the bill a step in the right direction. But added that his organization would seek future changes, particularly concerning provisions dealing with confessions of judgment.

"We are dissatisfied with installment regulations dealing with auto sales and home improvements," he added.

Other legislative leaders from both parties praised the bill.

Acting Senate Minority Leader William J. Lane, D—Washington, said it "represents a courageous step in the right direction."

"The adoption of the report... is one of the most significant steps forward for legislation for consumers in the history of our Commonwealth," said Senate Majority Leader Stanley G. Strup, R-Bedford.

The general assembly is now in recess until Nov. 14. The only major legislation that remain to be acted on is a bill that would permit all community colleges to finance construction through the State Public School Building Authority.

Republican Gains Seen Necessary By Ex-President

CULPEPER, Va. (AP) — Former President Dwight Eisenhower says substantial Republican gains in the November elections are necessary for the nation because "the only way to keep politics policed is to have one party strong enough to watch the other."

Eisenhower said Tuesday, "I'm certainly hoping for gains, especially in the House. We have to have a two-party system. A system of self-government such as ours is seriously damaged if one party gains complete control of all branches of government."

He was among those attending a sale of Angus cattle at nearby Brandy Rock Farm, owned by retired Adm. Lewis L. Strauss, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Youths Hurt In Guilford Area Mishap

Two Salem area youths were injured early today in a one-car mishap in the northern part of Columbiana County, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported. Three other mishaps were investigated today and Tuesday.

Chester Allen Paxson, 19, of Salem and Louis Pilch, 18, of Salem R. D. 4 were admitted to Salem Central Clinic after their car struck a tree along County Rd. 411 near Guilford Lake about 3:11 a. m.

Officers said Paxson was headed west in a 1966 auto when he lost control on a curve and the car veered off the highway and into the tree.

Paxson, cited for unsafe operation, received a deep laceration of the eyebrow and a head injury and Pilch a laceration of the scalp and a head injury. They were taken to the hospital by a passing motorist.

James Falter, 30, of Homestead Ave. escaped injury when his 1966 hardtop skidded backwards into an embankment along Route 45, about seven miles north of Wellsville late yesterday morning.

The patrol said he was headed north when he lost control of the car, which went off the east side of the highway and into the embankment.

William Anthony Trimbur, 21, of Midland was cited for speeding after his truck veered off the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. and upset early yesterday afternoon.

Officers said he was headed north about a mile from the Wellsville city limits when the 1953 van-type truck went off the right side of the road, then came back on the roadway and rolled over on its side.

He forfeited a $17.50 appearance bond in Municipal Court this morning.

William Dean McGee, 50, of Utica, Mich., escaped injury when his tractor - trailer truck struck an embankment along Route 7, about three miles south of Rogers at 2:10 a. m. today. He was headed south when the rig went off the roadway at a curve.

The Purtons were married at St. Aloysius Church and the Rearks in Pittsburgh, Calif.

Refreshments were served 90 at a buffet table covered with a white linen cloth. The centerpiece was a three - tier wedding cake, encircled at the base with flowers. Lighted tapers in crystal candelabra completed the setting.

Miss Teresa Maley poured at the crystal punch bowl.

Aides were Mrs. Robert Possage, Mrs. Homer Williams and Mrs. Jack Maley.

Texas has more hospitals — 628 — than any other state. A close second is California with 610. Next are New York (433) and Pennsylvania (329). Of the 50 states, the one with the fewest hospitals is Delaware, which has eight.

Non-Graded School Gets Final Go-Ahead

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's first non-graded high school, which will allow students to take courses on the basis of their ability rather than class rank, has received final go-ahead.

The Athens School Board approved Tuesday to put the school into operation by September of next year. The new school, now under construction at the north edge of Athens, will serve some 1,200 students in grades 9 through 12 now enrolled at three existing high schools.

At Wellsville Tuesday Night

Land Figure, Equipment Occupy Council Meeting

Mrs. Hilda Moore, owner of a disputed tract of land purchased in 1956, has revised her demands on the city of Wellsville.

Council was informed by its Finance Committee during the meeting Tuesday night that Mrs. Moore now is asking the $3,100 which she paid for the tract, plus $25 in legal fees and $1,000 in additional compensation.

Originally, she had asked the $3,100 and 4½ per cent interest plus the legal fees.

Councilman George Lawton of the Finance Committee informed the legislators of the latest development.

A general discussion indicated councilmen feel Mrs. Moore is entitled to the $3,100 plus the legal fee, but not the additional sum. Lawton said he will continue the negotiations.

COUNCIL Tuesday night also discussed the recent purchase by the city of a grader and salt spreader. Councilmen Glenn Mathess, Jack Call and Nunzio Lombardozzi indicated they felt the city spent "$2,100 more than it had to."

The comment came after announcement that the Board of Control — comprised of Mayor William Daugherty and Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare — bought the two items for a total of $6,100 last summer. An identical salt spreader and a grader two years newer had been offered for $4,000. The cheaper machine had some defects, councilmen explained, but the owner promised to repair all damages and supply a six-month comprehensive warranty. The older machine appeared to be in good working order and was supplied with a 12-month warranty. Council authorized the Board of Control to buy the units at "the lowest or best bids" and the higher cost purchase was made.

Mayor Daugherty said this morning he had discussed the matter with a "disinterested party who is a sales engineer in that field," and received a size-up of both machines.

After conferring with the city operator relative to the equipment "we exercised our judgments" and bought what "we hope is the better grader," Daugherty said.

Baldasare concurred with the mayor's statement.

IN OTHER business, James Phillips moved that a letter be prepared for the Public Utility Commission of Ohio, the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. and local railroad officials requesting a guard at the 18th St. crossing. Council received a second letter from parents in that area pointing out some 85 children must travel the crossing en route to and from school.

The Finance Committee agreed to meet with volunteer firemen to discuss a request for a pay raise.

The Street and Light Committee reported the Wellsville China Co. wishes to cut only a 20-foot section of curb so its trucks can have access to the firm. This was approved on the condition the safety-service director supervise the operation.

A letter was read from the Columbiana County Board of Health informing council the city refuse dump is still not operating at "maximum health conditions." The letter said this has been a "chronic problem in Wellsvillee" for 11 years and advised the lawmakers to consider discussing with East Liverpool officials the possibility of using that city's land fill.

Donald Penn, president of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club, asked the legislators to approach the Columbiana County commissioners relative to increasing Wellsville's standing on priority lists for extended water and sewage services in outlying areas. Council assured Penn it was "not standing still" and every possible avenue was being pursued in an effort to attain that goal.

PHILLIPS reported Daniel Saxton still has not been paid $50 owed him by the city for the use of his garage. Phillips was informed the ordinance authorizing the payment is now law and it is merely a matter of drafting the check for Saxton.

Harold Sneddon, division manager of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., reported to Council that, weather permitting, a line will be replaced under the 3rd St. crossing to improve service into the Nevada St. area. He said an old abandoned line would be used as a casing for the six-inch pipe. Sneddon also told Council an answering service has been obtained and 24-hour service will now be available on the firm's phone number.

Phillips emphasized the need for approval of the 1-mill cemetery levy Nov. 8 and said as much as a $2,000 deficit has had to be made up at the cemetery. Without the levy, he said, the city is "a stone's throw away from a wage tax."

Allan C. Baldwin presided.

Weirton Due New Postal Structure For Heights Area

WEIRTON — Sen. Jennings Randolph (D-W.Va.) announced in Washington Tuesday that the Post Office Department will build a new post office at Weirton Heights.

The action, taken on his recommendation, followed discussions with Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien, Randolph said.

He added that the postmaster general told him that the postal service will be seeking a site with approximately 30,000 square feet of land, excluding driveways and setbacks.

Based on present projections of the department, the new building would cost $150,000 exclusive of land, Randolph, who is chairman of the Senate Public Works Committee, added.

Procurement of a site will be the determining factor in how rapidly the project will be developed, he explained.

Older Group Gets Recognition At Boyce Services

Evangelist Scott George used "Peace" as his sermon topic.

Rev. Williams of the Pennsylvania Ave. Mehtodist Church led prayer and Fred Kane presented a vocal selection.

Youth of the church served as ushers.

Ministers attending included the Rev. Carl Stockdale, the Rev. Eugene Pugh, the Rev. Paul George, Rev. Mautz and Rev. Williams.

The services will continue until Sunday evening, with the public invited.

Youth Gets Detention For Taking Of Food

An East Liverpool youth, 17, has received 30 days in detention at Lisbon for taking an order of hamburgers and french fries from Kennedy's Restaurant on Route 7 Oct. 13 without paying for the food.

Juvenile Court credited him with time in detention since his arrest Oct. 13. Upon completion of detention, the youth must pay $10 — $2.75 to cover the cost of the food and the balance as a fine, observe a 7 p. m. curfew for two months and not associate with the three youths who were with him Oct. 13.

Trial Slated Tuesday In Income Tax Charge

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today scheduled a trial Tuesday morning for William McKinley Jones of 2221 Harvey Ave., who pleaded not guilty to a charge of violating the city income tax ordinance by failure to file an estimate of 1966 earnings.

Jones was lectured by the judge for his failure to appear for a scheduled hearing Monday. He replied that he advised D. G. Wilkinson, tax commissioner, he could not appear yesterday because he was scheduled to work. The judge replied the court was not advised and added that Jones' actions "show no respect for this court."

The judge commented that he continued the case to allow Jones to obtain counsel in order that he will receive "a full hearing." Wilkinson's affidavit, filed Oct. 6, says Jones' estimate of anticipated income should have been filed April 15.

HOW MANY MILES DO YOU WALK EACH DAY?

The Dr. Scholl Walk-Meters have recorded housewives do about 8½ miles, policemen 14 miles, 18-hole golfers 8½ miles and lady shoppers at Christmas as much as 18 miles.

If your feet ache, and you have no problem requiring a podiatrist or medical attention, try bathing your feet each night with lukewarm water and a good antiseptic foot soap to overcome the accumulated perspiration. Then, after rinsing your feet in cold water to increase circulation, dry them and rub in a good medicated footbalm to prevent future corns and callouses. The improvement will amaze you.

We carry many foot-aids and will be glad to help you select good products.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Folks: Many of you have written in regard to your synthetic fabric garments clinging to you because of static electricity.

Here is the solution that Miss Edna Schappert, the educational director of Man-Made Fiber Producers Association, Inc., has offered.

"Static is the force which causes the attraction of small bits of particles to an object after the object has been rubbed or exposed to abrasion.

"Sometimes in cold, dry weather, garments made from man-made fibers have a tendency to cling to the body, and this clinging is caused by what is commonly called static.

"This clinging tendency can be reduced in washable garments by adding a small amount of liquid detergent, fabric softener or a special liquid antistatic agent to the final rinse water. Liquid antistatic agents can be obtained at notion counters in drug or department stores.

"Care and handling directions on labels and hangtags should, of course, be followed."

Can you imagine anyone being so nice to take the time to give this information for us housewives?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Use a piece of leftover vinyl tile from your kitchen floor as a cutting board.

It's lightweight and easy to handle, and can be washed so easily and left out for the lazy ones in the house who are always cutting food on the counter top without bothering to haul out the heavy wooden cutting board.

S. J.

DEAR HELOISE: A lipstick with probably a third of its goodness unreachable in a tube has always been a challenge.

Last week I struck on this idea:

Using a letter opener, I gently pried out the imbedded lipstick and put a wad of cotton in the tube. I replaced the lipstick and presto, at least a third more usage. . . .

I. W.

DEAR HELOISE: A fashion hint. . . . Always wear a taffeta slip under those lovely knit dresses and suits, as taffeta doesn't cling and skirts hang much nicer!

M. R.

DEAR HELOISE: I sometimes take that over-supply of metal clothes hangers from our clothes closets and make one stronger hanger out of four, by taping them neatly together. I also tape that little cardboard cover on to some of the "four-somes" for men's and boy's trousers.

I find this helps in keeping the closets neat, and of course if a shortage of hangers occurs, you can make four out of one!

MR. HALL

DEAR HELOISE: Here's a hint for the ladies who like to use skin freshener or astringent but dislike to have to take a cotton pad, wet it, wring it out and wet it again with the freshener. . . .

I buy a box of cotton squares, take about a hundred of them and wet them with cold water. I then press the water out completely with the palm of my hand and pack them in a widemouth, squat jar.

I pour freshener over these cotton squares until they are saturated, and put the cover on tightly.

Whenever I need to freshen up, I have my astringent pads handy with no mess or fuss.

IRENE B.

DEAR HELOISE: What to do with the leftover roast after slicing it cold, the hot sandwiches and the hash . . . and there is still some left?

Just slice this meat thin and pop it in the kettle to simmer along with your favorite spaghetti sauce.

Delicious.

MURIEL COREY

DEAR HELOISE: Weary of buying new sets of dishes to replace old broken sets. . .for everyday use, I went to a second-hand store and bought a variety of dishes. Nothing matches.

The children love the assortment.

Now, when something breaks, I just go back to the second - hand store and buy only what I need, making sure it doesn't match either!

ELAINE POLLOCK.

Exercises For Lazy People

Most of us need more exercise than routine living affords. There is a natural reluctance toward making the effort. Moreover, many people are not up to jumping out of bed and sprinting through set-ups.

Ida Jean Kain

Non - strenuous exercise anyone? To take the strain and the resistance out of morning conditioners, ease into exercise action before you get out of bed in the morning. That's the part of the day most people like the very least. Why not use those five minutes between waking and getting up to renew your sense of well - being?

—:—

EASY DOES it. On awakening s-t-r-e-t-c-h. Stretch arms out sidewards, push down with the feet. Make it a thorough going stretch. Again. In stretching, one set of muscles work against another in a tug of muscle action. It is remarkable how well the tone of the muscles can be maintained with stretching.

A sensation of renewed vitality comes from restoring tone to middle muscles. The internal organs are kept in good functioning order by exercising the muscles that surround them. To restore tone to long front muscles:

Lie comfortably on your back, bend left knee and keep sole of foot flat on bed. Bring right knee toward chest, then straighten right leg and very slowly lower leg to bed. Repeat four to five times, making sure to keep small of back flat against bed. Change position of knees and repeat action with left leg. Or, alternate right and left.

To tone the side - front muscles, do the "hammoch swing." Flex both knees, and keep soles of feet flat on bed. Raise hips just slightly off bed. As you tilt toward right side, pull up-and-in with the side-front muscles. Hold contraction for a slow count of six, breathing freely. Come back to center, tilt upwards again and again hold. Three times on each side will be ever so toning.

FROM THE same position, with knees flexed, grab hold of thighs just above under side of knees. With a rocking motion, come on up to sitting position. This circulation rouser is almost effortless — the momentum carries you up. Repeat three to four times.

Now, on your feet. If you have a sit down job, you'll want to banish the bulges from the side hipline. Stand, feet apart, hands clasped ovrhead. Pull slim through the middle, then gently bend toward right. At the end of the bend, hold for a slow count of six. Repeat three to five times, always holding. Then stretch and bend to the other side. You'll see slimming results in a single week.

Why not make it a good morning?

Hints from Heloise

Dear Folks: Many of you have written in regard to your synthetic fabric garments clinging to you because of static electricity.

Here is the solution that Miss Edna Schappert, the educational director of Man-Made Fiber Producers Association, Inc., has offered.

"Static is the force which causes the attraction of small bits of particles to an object after the object has been rubbed or exposed to abrasion.

"Sometimes in cold, dry weather, garments made from man-made fibers have a tendency to cling to the body, and this clinging is caused by what is commonly called static.

"This clinging tendency can be reduced in washable garments by adding a small amount of liquid detergent, fabric softener or a special liquid antistatic agent to the final rinse water. Liquid antistatic agents can be obtained at notion counters in drug or department stores.

"Care and handling directions on labels and hangtags should, of course, be followed."

Can you imagine anyone being so nice to take the time to give this information for us housewives?

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: Use a piece of leftover vinyl tile from your kitchen floor as a cutting board.

It's lightweight and easy to handle, and can be washed so easily and left out for the lazy ones in the house who are always cutting food on the counter top without bothering to haul out the heavy wooden cutting board.

S. J.

DEAR HELOISE: A lipstick with probably a third of its goodness unreachable in a tube has always been a challenge.

Last week I struck on this idea:

Using a letter opener, I gently pried out the imbedded lipstick and put a wad of cotton in the tube. I replaced the lipstick and presto, at least a third more usage. . . .

I. W.

DEAR HELOISE: A fashion hint. . . . Always wear a taffeta slip under those lovely knit dresses and suits, as taffeta doesn't cling and skirts hang much nicer!

M. R.

DEAR HELOISE: I sometimes take that over-supply of metal clothes hangers from our clothes closets and make one stronger hanger out of four, by taping them neatly together. I also tape that little cardboard cover on to some of the "four-somes" for men's and boy's trousers.

I find this helps in keeping the closets neat, and of course if a shortage of hangers occurs, you can make four out of one!

MR. HALL

DEAR HELOISE: Here's a hint for the ladies who like to use skin freshener or astringent but dislike to have to take a cotton pad, wet it, wring it out and wet it again with the freshener. . . .

I buy a box of cotton squares, take about a hundred of them and wet them with cold water. I then press the water out completely with the palm of my hand and pack them in a widemouth, squat jar.

I pour freshener over these cotton squares until they are saturated, and put the cover on tightly.

Whenever I need to freshen up, I have my astringent pads handy with no mess or fuss.

IRENE B.

DEAR HELOISE: What to do with the leftover roast after slicing it cold, the hot sandwiches and the hash . . . and there is still some left?

Just slice this meat thin and pop it in the kettle to simmer along with your favorite spaghetti sauce.

Delicious.

MURIEL COREY

DEAR HELOISE: Weary of buying new sets of dishes to replace old broken sets. . .for everyday use, I went to a second-hand store and bought a variety of dishes. Nothing matches.

The children love the assortment.

Now, when something breaks, I just go back to the second - hand store and buy only what I need, making sure it doesn't match either!

Midland, Stanton, ELHS Out To Extend Win Streaks

The Review Sports

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1966 EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW PAGE 12

Tigers Seeking 1st Win Over Salem Since 1942 Season

Midand, Stanton and East Liverpool will attempt to extend their winning streak while Wellsville hopes to end a 24-game losing streak to Salem in four of nine games carded for Friday night.

Midland and Stanton remain as the district's only undefeated teams, Midland with a 6-0 mark and Stanton 5-0 while East Liverpool has a four game winning streak to its credit.

The Leopards, an easy winner of South Side last week, visit Rochester in another important WPIAL contest.

Stanton Local, ranked sixth in the Class A poll this week, was idle last Friday night but faces a big task traveling to Springfield Local of Jefferson County in what could be the stiffest test so far this season for Coach Glenn Trout's team.

THE POTTERS are preparing for its homecoming game with winless Martins Ferry.

While some teams are attemping to increase their winning streaks, Wellsville will attempt to defeat Salem for the first time since 1942. Although close on several occasions in the last 24 years the Tigers haven't been able to upend the Quakers.

It could be one of the longest streaks against one opponent in the state. At any rate, Wellsville stands a good chance of ending the streak since Salem has lost five in a row after opening with a win over Cleveland Lincoln.

FRIDAY'S game at Salem will be the 56th game between the two county schools.

Southern Local, winners of two in a row and batting .500 for the season at 3-3 will face a strong Jefferson Union team Friday night on the Southern gridiron. JU has a 5-1 record and has been beaten only by Wintersville.

A full schedule in the Tri-County circuit finds Lisbon at Louisville where the Leopards will be attempting to extend one of the longest winning streaks in the state while Columbiana is at Sebring, Minerva visits East Palestine and Poland is at Leetonia.

—:—

SATURDAY'S four-game schedule is headed by a backyard battle between Oak Glen and Beaver Local at the Beaver gridiron.

The Beavers are fresh from a victory over East Palestine while Oak Glen is currently carrying a five-game losing streak but came close against Philip Barbour last week.

South Side will celebrate homecoming with Avonworth the opponent Saturday afternoon. Crestview is at United in another afternoon tilt while Crafton and Western Beaver meet at Midland Saturday night.

Meredith Has Streak Stopped By Cardinals

By JERRY CURRY

ST. LOUIS (AP) — St. Louis safety Larry Wilson has ended Dallas quarterback Don Meredith's string of 156 passes without an interception this season.

The rangy, 6-foot, 190-pound Wilson was falling backward Sunday when he grabbed the ball that had been intended for a first-quarter Cowboy bomb.

"You have the greatest free safety in the game in Larry Wilson—and I hope you know it," said Dan Reeves, the Cowboy who scored the only Dallas touchdown in the 10-10 tie being tween the two unbeaten National Football League Eastern Division teams.

Reeves spoke to a St. Louis Quarterback Club luncheon the day after the game.

Wilson's steal was the first of three for the ball-hawking Cardinal secondary in the battle with the aerial-minded Cowboys who have scored 16 of their 26 touchdowns this season by passing.

Jerry Stovall and Jim Burson each picked off one of Meredith's tosses.

Bob Hayes, the fleet Dallas flanker who has caught most of Meredith's passes this season, was held to a meager 24 yards on only three pass receptions by the sticky defending of Wilson.

"Our front four was giving Meredith the big rush," said Wilson, the seven-year NFL veteran from Utah who has intercepted 24 passes in his career. "They were rushing him and we were keeping on the receivers pretty good most of the time."

That Cardinal defense severely limited the Cowboy offensive powerhouse that has averaged 45.75 points a game in its four victories and one tie.

Cellar Takes Last Rap At Pro Football Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The high cost of signing players is a major reason why National and American Football League owners want to merge, says Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y.

"They are poor labor negotiators and are asking Congress to rescue them from their own ineptitude and folly," says Celler, chairman of the House antitrust subcommittee.

Passage of a bill exempting the merger from the antitrust laws is regarded as a certainty. But Celler, who had hoped to hold up the legislation until he could explore its consequences fully in public hearings, is going down fighting.

He said Tuesday he will try to eliminate the merger provision from an administration tax bill, to which the Senate added it in a maneuver to get around Celler. There was a possibility the bill would come up in the House today.

Celler said the hearings that were held made it clear the desire for a common draft that would end the bidding between leagues for star players was a powerful factor in launching the merger.

Celler said when the merger is given antitrust immunity, the owners will have virtually unlimited power over the players, who he said would have to play for the team that drafts them at the price offered or not play at all. And the players would have no safeguard against abuse, he said.

"This would not be permitted in any other business," he said. "Now when a player is abused, he may bring an action under the antitrust laws. After this bill is enacted he will have no direct and effective remedy. It is a shameful thing to do to any group of employes."

The Senate, which twice passed the bill unanimously, never held any hearings on it.

Celler said the senate action of forcing acceptance of the merger provision as part of an important tax bill, with no chance to consider it separately, was "an affront to the deliberative process of Congress."

Davis Named As Defensive Star Of Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Davis does an all-pro job for Green Bay every Sunday afternoon but last week was something extra special. Something about playing the Chicago Bears seems to bring out the best in any Packer.

Rudy Bukich, having a mediocre year for the Bears, still had been thrown only once while trying to pass in four previous games. The Bears were proud of their pass blocking record. No more. Willie Davis plucked Bukich twice in one afternoon while the Packers rolled over the Bears 17-0.

While Willie was throwing himself over Bukich he was helping the Packers throw a blanket over speedy Gale Sayer, who was held to 29 yards in 15 carries.

"It was the finest defensive job I've ever seen since I've been playing in the league," veteran guard Fuzzy Thurston said.

"A great game," said Coach Vince Lombardi. "The kind of a game Willie gives you every week."

Davis has been named by The Associated Press as the Defensive Player of the Week in the National Football League. Francis Tarkenton of the Minnesota Vikings was picked as the offensive star of the week.

As Part Of Homecoming Exercises

Five Seeking Queen Title At ELHS

These five girls are candidates for homecoming queen during activities this week at East Liverpool High School.

They were chosen by the senior class to compete for the crown.

The selection of queen will be announced during half-time ceremonies at Friday night's football game between the Potters and Martins Ferry at Patterson Field.

Other homecoming festivities include a bonfire Thursday night in back of Westgate Junior High School and a dance Saturday from 8:30 until 11:30 at Memorial Auditorium. The dance and bonfire are being sponsored by the Boosters Club.

The theme this year is "Happiness Is. . .Homecoming '66," which will be symbolized by "Charlie Brown" and his football team.

Tickets for the dance are on sale at the school or may be purchased at the door. Alumni are invited.

Oklahoma Also Unbeaten

Spartans Pick Over Purdue; Irish Get Nod Over Sooners

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP) — There were exactly 7,291 persons who picked all 15 winners in last week's football contest conducted by the New York Daily News. This forecaster had 47 correct picks among the 61 major college games played.

Here's hoping for improvement with this week's major predictions:

Michigan State over Purdue: Each had a rugged game last weekend but the game is being played in East Lansing and that should be enough to spur Michigan State to super efforts.

Notre Dame over Oklahoma: The Irish showed against North Carolina that they can gain on the ground, too, by unleashing Nick Eddy. That's too much for the rebuilding Oklahomans.

Alabama over Vanderbilt: With ease.

Nebraska over Colorado: Unless the Buffaloes are higher than their Rocky Mountain altitude. Bob Churchich continues to guide the Huskers toward their fourth straight Big Eight title.

UCLA over California: Mel Farr and Gary Beban too much for the Bears.

Dartmouth over Harvard: It is only midseason, but the Ivy League title likely will be decided in this one. Harvard is the surprise of the league.

Florida over Louisiana State: Steve Spurrier will win this one for Albert, the Alligator.

Baylor over Texas A&M: This could be the greatest aerial battle since World War II with the Aggies' Edd Hargett and Baylor's Terry Southall doing the flinging.

Arkansas over Wichita: By whatever score the Porkers wish.

Southern California over Clemson: The Trojan defense has allowed only 30 points this season, but the club will be without Don McCall, its ace running back this week.

Georgia Tech over Tulane: The New Orleans Greenies are on the way back but haven't progressed far enough to beat Tech.

Ohio State over Wisconsin, Kent State over Bowling Green, Kansas State over Cincinnati, Dayton over Northern Michigan, Miami, Ohio, over Ohio University, Western Michigan over Toledo, Chattanooga over Xavier.

Strang Never Experienced Such Happenings On Field

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "I've lost 20 pounds since the season started and I'm not even dieting."

Kent State Football Coach Leo Strang, the man who is getting the svelte figure, would just as soon stop losing weight. And he would like to see his team start winning some games.

"It's unbelievable, the crazy things that have happened to us," said Strang, who in 17 years of coaching has never experienced such weird developments.

Kent, counted on to be a challenger for the Mid-American Conference championship, has a dismal 1-4 record and is 0-3 in the league. The Golden Flashes lost to Buffalo by four points, to Ohio University by two, to unbeaten Miami by seven and to Western Michigan by three.

"We're not making any more mistakes than any other team but our errors are freakish and they always cost us," Strang lamented.

Kent players have dropped passes, fumbled without even being tackled, missed assignments and fallen down without being touched.

"In the Buffalo game we piled up more than 400 yards on offense and still lost; Ohio got a 49-yard field goal in a strong crosswind in the final few seconds to beat us; in the 7-0 loss to Miami we had our best receiver drop a pass in the end zone and last week against Western we controlled the ball for 93 plays to their 39 and still got beat."

Strang isn't happy about Kent being tagged the best losing team in the conference. "Now that's a helluva honor to have."

Strang, in his third year at the school, hasn't had much luck his first two seasons either. Kent lost four games last year by a total of 27 points and two years ago dropped four more by 16. The only real pasting was a 41-0 loss to Bowling Green.

"It's tearing me apart. I find myself going over every play again and again.

But Strang isn't quite ready to throw in the towel.

"If there's such a thing as the law of averages, things are going to start breaking our way one of these days."

Koufax Sets Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers set a major league record by leading the National League in earned run average for the fifth straight year in 1966, the final averages disclosed today. Koufax compiled a 1.73 mark. Gary Peters of the Chicago White Sox topped the American League with 2.03.

Miami, Ohio U. Clash In Key Game Of MAC

By HAL PARIS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Athens could be the site of the biggest Mid-American Conference football game of the year Sturday when unbeaten Miami battles resurgent Ohio University.

"It's a fairly big game, won't you say," quipped Miami Coach Bo Schembechler. But in a more serious vein, the Redskin mentor said:

"This is the key game of the year as far as we're concerned and I'm sure they feel the same way.

"We didn't show much against Marshall last week but we couldn't in that mud bath. I guarantee we'll be pulling out all the stops in this one."

Miami, 5-0 over-all and 3-0 in the conference, is generally regarded as the class team of the league. But Ohio, after a season-opening setback to Purdue, has swept aside four straight foes and can taste an upset.

Coach Bill Hess' Bobcats have a 2-0 Mid-Am record and will be bidding to atone for that 34-0 pasting at the hands of Miami a year ago.

"Ohio is more explosive than any club we've met this year," Schembechler noted. "Our scouts tell us the Bobcats will be the best team we've met so far. Neither of us is too big, but that fullback of theirs, Bob Houmard, makes a difference in the backfield."

Miami's brilliant defense, which has blanked the last two opponents and allowed only two touchdowns all season, should get a stern test.

"Ohio has a diversified attack. They try to lull you asleep with their fullback running and then let Ron DeLucca cut loose with the bomb," Schembechler said.

In other action this week, hard luck Kent (0-3) journeys to Bowling Green (1-1) and Toledo (1-2) visits hopeful Western Michigan (2-1). Marshall (1-4) is outside the league in a home encounter against Louisville (2-2) of the Missouri Valley Conference.

Miami holds 24-17-1 advantage over Ohio in the long series and limited the Bobcats to only nine yards rushing in last year's tilt.

Bruce Matte, Miami's ace quarterback, is recovered from an elbow injury, and should be at peak efficiency for the crucial game.

"I would say we figure to open up and throw the ball more," Schembechler said.

Miami, boasting the nation's longest winning streak at 11, has seen its offense slowed to a crawl in the last two victories. The Redskins scored only 7 against Kent and 12 against Marshall compared to 73 points in their first three triumphs.

And the Skins have gained only 26 yards on three pass completions in the last two starts.

The Bobcats used a balanced attack in downing Xavier last week rushing for 101 yards and passing for another 143. Both clubs have yet to play Bowling Green while Miami must also face Toledo and Ohio has to tangle with Western.

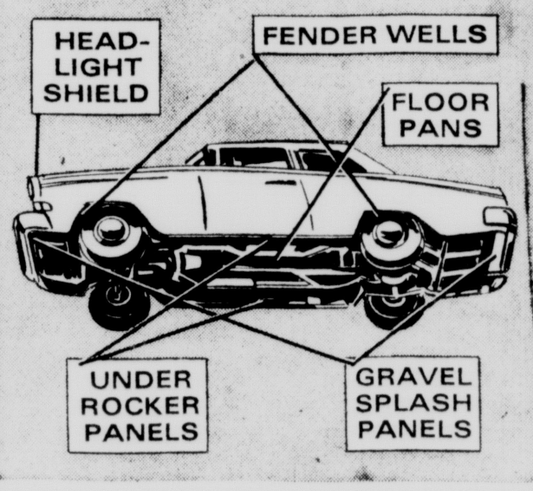

Earl Faison Claimed By Miami's Dolphins

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Earl Faison, four-time All-American Football League defensive end placed on waivers by the San Diego Chargers, has been claimed by the Miami Dolphins.

The 6-foot-5, 265-pound Faison, rookie of the year in 1961, was waived by the Chargers Tuesday with a comment from coach Sid Gillman that Faison "will be better off with some other team."

Unless Gillman changes his mind, Faison will become the property of the Dolphins Thursday after the 48-hour recall deadline.

Midland, Stanton, ELHS Out To Extend Win Streaks

Tigers Seeking 1st Win Over Salem Since 1942 Season

Midand, Stanton and East Liverpool will attempt to extend their winning streak while Wellsville hopes to end a 24-game losing streak to Salem in four of nine games carded for Friday night.

Midland and Stanton remain as the district's only undefeated teams, Midland with a 6-0 mark and Stanton 5-0 while East Liverpool has a four game winning streak to its credit.

The Leopards, an easy winner of South Side last week, visit Rochester in another important WPIAL contest.

Stanton Local, ranked sixth in the Class A poll this week, was idle last Friday night but faces a big task traveling to Springfield Local of Jefferson County in what could be the stiffest test so far this season for Coach Glenn Trout's team.

THE POTTERS are preparing for its homecoming game with winless Martins Ferry.

While some teams are attemping to increase their winning streaks, Wellsville will attempt to defeat Salem for the first time since 1942. Although close on several occasions in the last 24 years the Tigers haven't been able to upend the Quakers.

It could be one of the longest streaks against one opponent in the state. At any rate, Wellsville stands a good chance of ending the streak since Salem has lost five in a row after opening with a win over Cleveland Lincoln.

FRIDAY'S game at Salem will be the 56th game between the two county schools.

Southern Local, winners of two in a row and batting .500 for the season at 3-3 will face a strong Jefferson Union team Friday night on the Southern gridiron. JU has a 5-1 record and has been beaten only by Wintersville.

A full schedule in the Tri-County circuit finds Lisbon at Louisville where the Leopards will be attempting to extend one of the longest winning streaks in the state while Columbiana is at Sebring. Minerva visits East Palestine and Poland is at Leetonia.

—:—

SATURDAY'S four-game schedule is headed by a backyard battle between Oak Glen and Beaver Local at the Beaver gridiron.

The Beavers are fresh from a victory over East Palestine while Oak Glen is currently carrying a five-game losing streak but came close against Philip Barbour last week.

South Side will celebrate homecoming with Avonworth the opponent Saturday afternoon. Crestview is at United in another afternoon tilt while Crafton and Western Beaver meet at Midland Saturday night.

Five Seeking Queen Title At ELHS

These five girls are candidates for homecoming queen during activities this week at East Liverpool High School.

They were chosen by the senior class to compete for the crown.

The selection of queen will be announced during half-time ceremonies at Friday night's football game between the Potters and Martins Ferry at Patterson Field.

Other homecoming festivities include a bonfire Thursday night in back of Westgate Junior High School and a dance Saturday from 8:30 until 11:30 at Memorial Auditorium. The dance and bonfire are being sponsored by the Boosters Club.

The theme this year is "Happiness Is. . .Homecoming '66," which will be symbolized by "Charlie Brown" and his football team.

Tickets for the dance are on sale at the school or may be purchased at the door. Alumni are invited.

Miami, Ohio U. Clash In Key Game Of MAC

By HAL PARIS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Athens could be the site of the biggest Mid-American Conference football game of the year Sturday when unbeaten Miami battles resurgent Ohio University.

"It's a fairly big game, won't you say," quipped Miami Coach Bo Schembechler. But in a more serious vein, the Redskin mentor said:

"This is the key game of the year as far as we're concerned and I'm sure they feel the same way.

"We didn't show much against Marshall last week but we couldn't in that mud bath. I guarantee we'll be pulling out all the stops in this one."

Miami, 5-0 over-all and 3-0 in the conference, is generally regarded as the class team of the league. But Ohio, after a season-opening setback to Purdue, has swept aside four straight foes and can taste an upset.

Meredith Has Streak Stopped By Cardinals

By JERRY CURRY

ST. LOUIS (AP) — St. Louis safety Larry Wilson has ended Dallas quarterback Don Meredith's string of 156 passes without an interception this season.

The rangy, 6-foot, 190-pound Wilson was falling backward Sunday when he grabbed the ball that had been intended for a first-quarter Cowboy bomb.

"You have the greatest free safety in the game in Larry Wilson—and I hope you know it," said Dan Reeves, the Cowboy who scored the only Dallas touchdown in the 10-10 tie being tween the two unbeaten National Football League Eastern Division teams.

Reeves spoke to a St. Louis Quarterback Club luncheon the day after the game.

Wilson's steal was the first of three for the ball-hawking Cardinal secondary in the battle with the aerial-minded Cowboys who have scored 16 of their 26 touchdowns this season by passing.

Jerry Stovall and Jim Burson each picked off one of Meredith's tosses.

Bob Hayes, the fleet Dallas flanker who has caught most of Meredith's passes this season, was held to a meager 24 yards on only three pass receptions by the sticky defending of Wilson.

"Our front four was giving Meredith the big rush," said Wilson, the seven-year NFL veteran from Utah who has intercepted 24 passes in his career. "They were rushing him and we were keeping on the receivers pretty good most of the time."

That Cardinal defense severely limited the Cowboy offensive powerhouse that has averaged 45.75 points a game in its four victories and one tie.

Cellar Takes Last Rap At Pro Football Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The high cost of signing players is a major reason why National and American Football League owners want to merge, says Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y.

"They are poor labor negotiators and are asking Congress to rescue them from their own ineptitude and folly," says Celler, chairman of the House antitrust subcommittee.

Passage of a bill exempting the merger from the antitrust laws is regarded as a certainty. But Celler, who had hoped to hold up the legislation until he could explore its consequences fully in public hearings, is going down fighting.

He said Tuesday he will try to eliminate the merger provision from an administration tax bill, to which the Senate added it in a maneuver to get around Celler. There was a possibility the bill would come up in the House today.

Celler said the hearings that were held made it clear the desire for a common draft that would end the bidding between leagues for star players was a powerful factor in launching the merger.

Celler said when the merger is given antitrust immunity, the owners will have virtually unlimited power over the players, who he said would have to play for the team that drafts them at the price offered or not play at all. And the players would have no safeguard against abuse, he said.

"This would not be permitted in any other business," he said. "Now when a player is abused, he may bring an action under the antitrust laws. After this bill is enacted he will have no direct and effective remedy. It is a shameful thing to do to any group of employes."

The Senate, which twice passed the bill unanimously, never held any hearings on it.

Celler said the senate action of forcing acceptance of the merger provision as part of an important tax bill, with no chance to consider it separately, was "an affront to the deliberative process of Congress."

Davis Named As Defensive Star Of Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Davis does an all-pro job for Green Bay every Sunday afternoon but last week was something extra special. Something about playing the Chicago Bears seems to bring out the best in any Packer.

Rudy Bukich, having a mediocre year for the Bears, still had been thrown only once while trying to pass in four previous games. The Bears were proud of their pass blocking record. No more. Willie Davis plucked Bukich twice in one afternoon while the Packers rolled over the Bears 17-0.

While Willie was throwing himself over Bukich he was helping the Packers throw a blanket over speedy Gale Sayer, who was held to 29 yards in 15 carries.

"It was the finest defensive job I've ever seen since I've been playing in the league," veteran guard Fuzzy Thurston said.

"A great game," said Coach Vince Lombardi. "The kind of a game Willie gives you every week."

Davis has been named by The Associated Press as the Defensive Player of the Week in the National Football League. Francis Tarkenton of the Minnesota Vikings was picked as the offensive star of the week.

Spartans Pick Over Purdue; Irish Get Nod Over Sooners

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP) — There were exactly 7,291 persons who picked all 15 winners in last week's football contest conducted by the New York Daily News. This forecaster had 47 correct picks among the 61 major college games played.

Here's hoping for improvement with this week's major predictions:

Michigan State over Purdue: Each had a rugged game last weekend but the game is being played in East Lansing and that should be enough to spur Michigan State to super efforts.

Notre Dame over Oklahoma: The Irish showed against North Carolina that they can gain on the ground, too, by unleashing Nick Eddy. That's too much for the rebuilding Oklahomans.

Alabama over Vanderbilt: With ease.

Nebraska over Colorado: Unless the Buffaloes are higher than their Rocky Mountain altitude. Bob Churchich continues to guide the Huskers toward their fourth straight Big Eight title.

UCLA over California: Mel Farr and Gary Beban too much for the Bears.

Dartmouth over Harvard: It is only midseason, but the Ivy League title likely will be decided in this one. Harvard is the surprise of the league.

Florida over Louisiana State: Steve Spurrier will win this one for Albert, the Alligator.

Baylor over Texas A&M: This could be the greatest aerial battle since World War II with the Aggies' Edd Hargett and Baylor's Terry Southall doing the flinging.

Arkansas over Wichita: By whatever score the Porkers wish.

Southern California over Clemson: The Trojan defense has allowed only 30 points this season, but the club will be without Don McCall, its ace running back this week.

Georgia Tech over Tulane: The New Orleans Greenies are on the way back but haven't progressed far enough to beat Tech.

Ohio State over Wisconsin, Kent State over Bowling Green, Kansas State over Cincinnati, Dayton over Northern Michigan, Miami, Ohio, over Ohio University, Western Michigan over Toledo, Chattanooga over Xavier.

Strang Never Experienced Such Happenings On Field

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "I've lost 20 pounds since the season started and I'm not even dieting."

Kent State Football Coach Leo Strang, the man who is getting the svelte figure, would just as soon stop losing weight. And he would like to see his team start winning some games.

"It's unbelievable, the crazy things that have happened to us," said Strang, who in 17 years of coaching has never experienced such weird developments.

Kent, counted on to be a challenger for the Mid-American Conference championship, has a dismal 1-4 record and is 0-3 in the league. The Golden Flashes lost to Buffalo by four points, to Ohio University by two, to unbeaten Miami by seven and to Western Michigan by three.

"We're not making any more mistakes than any other team but our errors are freakish and they always cost us," Strang lamented.

Kent players have dropped passes, fumbled without even being tackled, missed assignments and fallen down without being touched.

"In the Buffalo game we piled up more than 400 yards on offense and still lost; Ohio got a 49-yard field goal in a strong crosswind in the final few seconds to beat us; in the 7-0 loss to Miami we had our best receiver drop a pass in the end zone and last week against Western we controlled the ball for 93 plays to their 39 and still got beat."

Strang isn't happy about Kent being tagged the best losing team in the conference. "Now that's a helluva honor to have."

Strang, in his third year at the school, hasn't had much luck his first two seasons either. Kent lost four games last year by a total of 27 points and two years ago dropped four more by 16. The only real pasting was a 41-0 loss to Bowling Green.

"It's tearing me apart. I find myself going over every play again and again.

But Strang isn't quite ready to throw in the towel.

"If there's such a thing as the law of averages, things are going to start breaking our way one of these days."

Koufax Sets Record

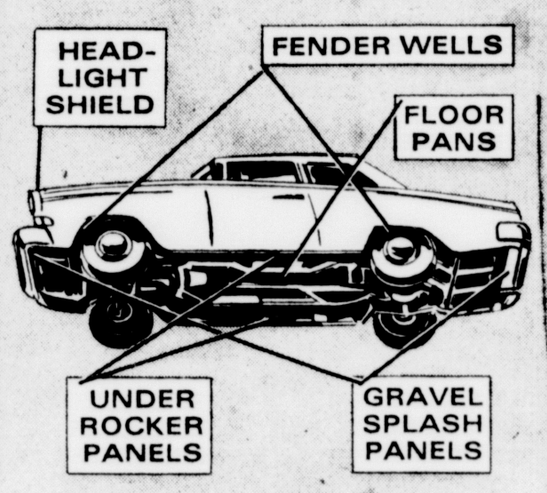

NEW YORK (AP) — Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers set a major league record by leading the National League in earned run average for the fifth straight year in 1966, the final averages disclosed today. Koufax compiled a 1.73 mark. Gary Peters of the Chicago White Sox topped the American League with 2.03.

Louisville U. Passer Gains Back Of Week

By MICHAEL SULLIVAN

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Benny Russell, the Associated Press Back of the Week, credits a "quarterback's coach" with his development as a passer.

"Coach Frank Camp watches me continually," Russell said in an interview. "He doesn't give me a chance to get bad habits started."

The slender, soft-spoken University of louisville senior from the tiny town of Jay in northwest Florida displayed no bad habits in passing and running 474 yards against Drake in a 66-28 victory last Saturday.

Russell threw four touchdown strikes and ran for two more — breaking a Louisville record set by Johnny Unitas, now of the Baltimore Colts, and becoming the school's first player named Back of the Week.

Russell, a future draft choice of the St. Louis Cardinals in the NFL, said frankly that he was not surprised by the team's performance.

"We were tight and tense, but right on the edge of jelling in those close ones we lost to North Texas State and Dayton," he said. "Against Drake our blocking and pass receiving was fantastic."

Last year, the Cardinals dropped two one-point decisions and finished 6-4. Now their record stands 2-2 and Russell says pre-season visions of a bowl trip are still alive.

Southern Local Names Leading Players Of Week

Sprinters Feel High Altitude

By WILL GRIMSLEY

MEXICO CITY (AP) — "My chest was so tight, I thought it was going to pop and spew my ribs on the track," said 17-year-old Billie Gaines of Mullica Hills, N.J.

"At first, I almost blacked out — my eyes got woozy — but I took some deep breaths and was all right," said Tommie Smith of Los Angeles.

Even the sprinters now claim they are feeling the effects of Mexico City's 1½-mile altitude in their tune-up for the 1968 Olympic Games.

Smith, stringbean world record holder in the 200 meters and 220 yards, and Gaines, the amazing schoolboy from New Jersey, finished second and third, respectively, Tuesday to Cuba's veteran Enrique Figuerola in the 100-meter dash of the Little Olympics.

Both Figuerola and Smith were timed in 10.4 seconds, with Gaines one-10th of a second behind.

Smith, who along with other members of the U.S. track and field team didn't check in until Tuesday night, said he believed it would take at least two weeks at this altitude to get ready for the 100 and three weeks for anyone running 400 and above.

The United States extended its medal lead when a dark horse, Neil Steinhauper, who was not even listed with the official U.S. squad, won the shot put with 61 feet, 5 incnes (18.72 meters). Smith got a silver and Gaines a bronze in the 100-meter dash.

This gave the Americans a total of 18 golds, 12 silvers and nine bronze compared with Russia's 13-11-9 ratio.

Valeriy Shorzkov of the Soviet Union won the high jump (2.12 meters, 6 feet, 11½ inches) and the Russians got a bronze in the 5,000 meters where Jurily Zuring finished third behind Colombia's Mohamed Gammoudix (14:20).

Poland scored a double when Ewa Klobukowska won the women's 100 meters (:11.3) and Irena Kirszenstein the broad jump (20-1¾). Other track and field titles went to Hilda Ramirez of Cuba, women's discuss (39.58 meters, 129-10¼); Van Eyk Vos of Holland, women's 400 meters (:45.7), and Roberto Frinolli of Italy, 400-meter hurdles :49.6.

Olympic champion Jiri Daler of Czechoslovakia won the men's 400-meter individual pursuit in cycling while Jurgen Julitz of West Germany moved to the front after three events of pentathlon with Jim Fresley of Niles, Mich., an Army corporal at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.

Unique Golf Event To Open On Thursday

CARLSBAD, Calif., (AP) — Miller Barber tested the La Costa Country Club's rolling acreage of golf course and said today he found it to his liking for the $60,000 Haig Scotch Mixed Championship.

The unique 72 - hole event, which pairs leading PGA guy and gal professionals on a best ball basis, gets under way Thursday over the par 36-36—72 course.

Gardner Dickinson and Ruth Jessen are the defending champions and will team again in quest of $7,500 top money which the winners split.

Barber, a balding pro from San Antonio, Tex., had a 32-33—65 in the pro-amateur event Tuesday.

Clifford Ann Creed's individual 72 was low for the girls.

Bass, Kelly Continue In Rushing Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Bass skipped past the idle Leroy Kelly in the National Football League rushing race over the weekend but the Cleveland halfback still is first on average gain.

Because of the weekly bye in the NFL, the individual statistics are tricky this season. At the end of the year everybody will have played 14 games but right now Bass and the Los Angeles Rams have played six and Kelly's Browns have played only five.

Bass has 489 yards but a 4.9 average. Kelly has 465 but averages 5.5. Ernie Green of Cleveland, fifth in total yardage, also has a better average than Bass with 5.3.

Bart Starr of Green Bay took over the passing lead in the standings based on a combination of percentage of completions, 62.9, touchdowns, eight percentage of interceptions, 2.3 and average gain, 9:18.

Some six million persons in the United States are mentally retarded.

Jim Bragan Named As Coach For Reds

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jimmy Bragan was named a coach today for the Cincinnati Reds. He is a brother of Bobby Bragan, who managed the Atlanta Braves part of the 1966 season.

Reds President William O. DeWitt also announced that coaches Mel Harder, Ray Shore, Whitey Wietelmann and Vern Benson were rehired for the 1967 season.

Bragan, 37, also will work with the Reds this winter in Clearwater, Fla. He has been a scout for the Reds since 1957, working mostly in the South. This will be his first major league coaching job.

NHL Begins 50th Season

By The Associated Press

The Chicago Black Hawks, led by 54-goal scorer Bobby Hull, invade New York and the Detroit Red Wings, sparked by 20-year wonder Gordie Howe, visit Boston as the National Hockey League — a year away from mass expansion—begins its 50th season tonight.

Tonight's openers — and the Montrel and Toronto sendoffs Saturday night — will be the last for the NHL as a six-team circuit. The league will be doubled next season with the formation of a second division, with franchises in Los Angeles, San Francisco-Oakland, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Minneapolis-St. Paul and St. Louis.

Hull, who scored his record-breaking 51st goal last season aginst the Rangers, may find the current New York club less vulnerable. The Rangers, who slipped into the league cellar in 1965-66, are bigger, hungrier — and "25 per cent improved," according to peppery Emil Francis, their general manager-coach.

Detroit's Howe, 38 years young and 624 goals rich, starts his 21st NHL campaign against the young Bruins, whose brightest prospect, defenseman Bobby Orr, was born during Gordie's third year in the league.

The Canadiens and Maple Leafs each open at home Saturday night, Montreal entertaining the Bruins and Toronto taking on the Rangers.

Tobin Rote Placed On Waivers By Denver

DENVER (AP) — The Denver Broncos, who gave San Diego a future draft choice for the opportunity to sign up veteran quarterback Tobin Rote three weeks ago, put him on waivers Tuesday.

Rote had been retired for a year and a half when the American Football League team talked him into playing for them. He appeared in three games for Denver, but saw a total of less than five minutes action.

Louisville U. Passer Gains Back Of Week

By MICHAEL SULLIVAN

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Benny Russell, the Associated Press Back of the Week, credits a "quarterback's coach" with his development as a passer.

"Coach Frank Camp watches me continually," Russell said in an interview. "He doesn't give me a chance to get bad habits started."

The slender, soft-spoken University of louisville senior from the tiny town of Jay in northwest Florida displayed no bad habits in passing and running 474 yards against Drake in a 66-28 victory last Saturday.

Russell threw four touchdown strikes and ran for two more — breaking a Louisville record set by Johnny Unitas, now of the Baltimore Colts, and becoming the school's first player named Back of the Week.

Russell, a future draft choice of the St. Louis Cardinals in the NFL, said frankly that he was not surprised by the team's performance.

"We were tight and tense, but right on the edge of jelling in those close ones we lost to North Texas State and Dayton," he said. "Against Drake our blocking and pass receiving was fantastic."

Last year, the Cardinals dropped two one-point decisions and finished 6-4. Now their record stands 2-2 and Russell says pre-season visions of a bowl trip are still alive.

Southern Local Names Leading Players Of Week

Players of the week at Southern Local have been announced by head coach Beau Bell.

Greg Pierce and Marvin McIntosh tied for the defensive lineman award each having 80 per cent. John McCord was named the outstanding defensive back while Tom Lee an end was picked leading offensive lineman and Dave Smith, the leading offensive back.

Jim Ewing a linebacker and McCord made the most tackles and assists with seven.

Movies of the Southern - Crestview game will be shown tonight at 8.

Sprinters Feel High Altitude

By WILL GRIMSLEY

MEXICO CITY (AP) — "My chest was so tight, I thought it was going to pop and spew my ribs on the track," said 17-year-old Billie Gaines of Mullica Hills, N.J.

"At first, I almost blacked out — my eyes got woozy — but I took some deep breaths and was all right," said Tommie Smith of Los Angeles.

Even the sprinters now claim they are feeling the effects of Mexico City's 1½-mile altitude in their tune-up for the 1968 Olympic Games.

Smith, stringbean world record holder in the 200 meters and 220 yards, and Gaines, the amazing schoolboy from New Jersey, finished second and third, respectively, Tuesday to Cuba's veteran Enrique Figuerola in the 100-meter dash of the Little Olympics.

Both Figuerola and Smith were timed in 10.4 seconds, with Gaines one-10th of a second behind.

Smith, who along with other members of the U.S. track and field team didn't check in until Tuesday night, said he believed it would take at least two weeks at this altitude to get ready for the 100 and three weeks for anyone running 400 and above.

The United States extended its medal lead when a dark horse, Neil Steinhauper, who was not even listed with the official U.S. squad, won the shot put with 61 feet, 5 inches (18.72 meters). Smith got a silver and Gaines a bronze in the 100-meter dash.

This gave the Americans a total of 18 golds, 12 silvers and nine bronze compared with Russia's 13-11-9 ratio.

Valeriy Shorzkov of the Soviet Union won the high jump (2.12 meters, 6 feet, 11½ inches) and the Russians got a bronze in the 5,000 meters where Jurily Zuring finished third behind Colombia's Mohamed Gammoudix (14:20).

Poland scored a double when Ewa Klobukowska won the women's 100 meters (:11.3) and Irena Kirszenstein the broad jump (20-1¾). Other track and field titles went to Hilda Ramirez of Cuba, women's discuss (39.58 meters, 129-10¼); Van Eyk Vos of Holland, women's 400 meters (:45.7), and Roberto Frinolli of Italy, 400-meter hurdles :49.6.

Olympic champion Jiri Daler of Czechoslovakia won the men's 400-meter individual pursuit in cycling while Jurgen Julitz of West Germany moved to the front after three events of pentathlon with Jim Fresley of Niles, Mich., an Army corporal at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.

Unique Golf Event To Open On Thursday

CARLSBAD, Calif., (AP) — Miller Barber tested the La Costa Country Club's rolling acreage of golf course and said today he found it to his liking for the $60,000 Haig Scotch Mixed Championship.

The unique 72 - hole event, which pairs leading PGA guy and gal professionals on a best ball basis, gets under way Thursday over the par 36-36—72 course.

Gardner Dickinson and Ruth Jessen are the defending champions and will team again in quest of $7,500 top money which the winners split.

Barber, a balding pro from San Antonio, Tex., had a 32-33—65 in the pro-amateur event Tuesday.

Clifford Ann Creed's individual 72 was low for the girls.

Bass, Kelly Continue In Rushing Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Bass skipped past the idle Leroy Kelly in the National Football League rushing race over the weekend but the Cleveland halfback still is first on average gain.

Because of the weekly bye in the NFL, the individual statistics are tricky this season. At the end of the year everybody will have played 14 games but right now Bass and the Los Angeles Rams have played six and Kelly's Browns have played only five.

Bass has 489 yards but a 4.9 average. Kelly has 465 but averages 5.5. Ernie Green of Cleveland, fifth in total yardage, also has a better average than Bass with 5.3.

Bart Starr of Green Bay took over the passing lead in the standings based on a combination of percentage of completions, 62.9, touchdowns, eight percentage of interceptions, 2.3 and average gain, 9:18.

Some six million persons in the United States are mentally retarded.

Jim Bragan Named As Coach For Reds

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jimmy Bragan was named a coach today for the Cincinnati Reds. He is a brother of Bobby Bragan, who managed the Atlanta Braves part of the 1966 season.

Reds President William O. DeWitt also announced that coaches Mel Harder, Ray Shore, Whitey Wietelmann and Vern Benson were rehired for the 1967 season.

Bragan, 37, also will work with the Reds this winter in Clearwater, Fla. He has been a scout for the Reds since 1957, working mostly in the South. This will be his first major league coaching job.

NHL Begins 50th Season

By The Associated Press

The Chicago Black Hawks, led by 54-goal scorer Bobby Hull, invade New York and the Detroit Red Wings, sparked by 20-year wonder Gordie Howe, visit Boston as the National Hockey League — a year away from mass expansion—begins its 50th season tonight.

Tonight's openers — and the Montrel and Toronto sendoffs Saturday night — will be the last for the NHL as a six-team circuit. The league will be doubled next season with the formation of a second division, with franchises in Los Angeles, San Francisco-Oakland, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Minneapolis-St. Paul and St. Louis.

Hull, who scored his record-breaking 51st goal last season aginst the Rangers, may find the current New York club less vulnerable. The Rangers, who slipped into the league cellar in 1965-66, are bigger, hungrier — and "25 per cent improved," according to peppery Emil Francis, their general manager-coach.

Detroit's Howe, 38 years young and 624 goals rich, starts his 21st NHL campaign against the young Bruins, whose brightest prospect, defenseman Bobby Orr, was born during Gordie's third year in the league.

The Canadiens and Maple Leafs each open at home Saturday night, Montreal entertaining the Bruins and Toronto taking on the Rangers.

Tobin Rote Placed On Waivers By Denver

DENVER (AP) — The Denver Broncos, who gave San Diego a future draft choice for the opportunity to sign up veteran quarterback Tobin Rote three weeks ago, put him on waivers Tuesday.

Rote had been retired for a year and a half when the American Football League team talked him into playing for them. He appeared in three games for Denver, but saw a total of less than five minutes action.

Brawl Marks New York Win Over Los Angeles

By HAL BOCK

NEW YORK (AP) — If Cassius Clay is looking for action after his fight with Cleveland Williams, the New York Knickerbockers may have the man for him.

The Knicks unveiled the National Basketball Association's newest heavyweight contender Tuesday night when Willis Reed took on the whole Los Angeles Laker bench and won.

The Knicks came out on top, too, but by a somewhat closer margin than Reed. New York blew most of a 18-point lead and just held on for a 122-119 victory over the Lakers.

It was in the third quarter that Reed went after the Lakers. He was lined up next to Rudy LaRusso at the foul line as Elgin Baylor, who led all scorers with 31 points, attempted a free throw.

"He hit me in the head with an elbow," LaRusso said later. "After that I swung at him."

Reed admitted jostling with LaRusso as Baylor shot but said it was nothing more than what ordinarily goes on in the lane on free throws.

Both benches emptied and when things calmed down, Reed and LaRusso were ejected from the game. Laker rookie John Block had a broken nose and Los Angeles center Darrell Imhoff had a one stitch cut over his left eye.

Lost in the excitement of the Reed-LaRusso main event was the debut of the Knicks' $200,000 rookie, Cazzie Russell.

Still troubled by a sore ankle, Russell played only eight minutes and made one of four shots from the floor.

Someone asked the All-America from Michigan where he was when the fists began flying. "Right in the middle," Cazzie replied, "observing."

In other games Tuesday night, Chicago topped San Francisco 119-116 and Detroit edged Cincinnati 114-112.

Playing before more than 5,000 fans in their home opener, Detroit blew an 11-point lead in the third period and had to come from behind in the final two minutes to win.

Veteran Ray Scott pulled the Pistons even at 110-110 and rookie Dave Bing made a free throw, and Scott tossed in a free throw and a field goal to make it 114-110.

Oscar Robertson made a field goal for Cincinnati, but Bing got the ball and dribbled out the final 15 seconds.

Robertson led the Royals with 28 points and Happy Hairston chipped in 22. Scott was high for the Pistons with 20.

125 Due At Event

COLUMBIANA — Charles Gause of Guilford Lake, president of the Columbiana County Trustees and Clerks Association, will preside for the group's annual women's and candidtes' dinner at 7 p. m. Thursday in Heck's Resaurant. Judge Louis J. Schneider Jr. of the Ohio Supreme Court will speak. Gause said approximately 125 will attend.

Leads In Total Offense

NEW YORK (AP) — Benny Russell's 472 yards gained in Louisville's 66-28 victory over Drake last Saturday night has moved the 6-foot-1 senior quarterback from Jay, Fla., into the total offense lead among the nation's major-college football players.

Statistics compiled by the NCAA Service Bureau showed today that Russell's performance enabled him to climb from 15th place. He has gained a season total of 1,165 yards. Bob Davis of Virginia is second with 1,134 yards.

Purdue Star Is Selected Top Lineman

By MURRAY CHASS

NEW YORK (AP)—The Burke boys—Frank Jr. and Chris—have a new football, and thanks to their dad, Purdue has the best shot at the Big Ten's berth in the Rose Bowl.

Frank Jr., 2, and Chris, 9 months, got the ball last Saturday night, a few hours after Frank Sr. grabbed it and scored the touchdown that gave Purdue a 22-21 victory over Michigan.

And for grabbing the ball after blocking a punt, Frank Sr. was named College Football's Lineman of the Week by The Associated Press today.

"When I got home Saturday night, the ball was the first thing my boys got hold of," said Burke, a linebacker, who at 27 is the oldest member of the Purdue squad.

Because Michigan State is ineligible to return to the Rose Bowl, the winner of the Purdue-Michigan contest would be considered the leading contender for the postseason classic.

Some seven minutes remained in the game, and Michigan's Stan Kemp dropped back a couple of yards in the end zone to punt. Burke broke through the Wolverine line at the snap.

"I kept charging," he explained, "then put my hand up in the air and blocked the kick."

The ball popped into the air, Burke outleaped the desperate Wolverines, pulled the ball in on the one and stepped gingerly into the end zone.

Burke, a 6-foot-1 215-pounder who played service football for three years in Germany, carried the ball off the field with him, surrending it only to his sons when he returned to Lafayette, Ind., that night.

GE Plant Has 2nd False Bomb Threat

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A second false bomb threat in as many days was received Tuesday at the General Electric Co.'s lamp plant here.

The latest threat, pencilled on a piece of paper found in a lady's rest room, warned there would be an explosion at the plant by last midnight. A search turned up nothing.

Kent State's Tailback Is Voted Honors

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two players who turned in outstanding efforts in a losing cause have been named Back and Lineman of the Week in the Mid-American Conference.

Kent State tailback Don Fitzgerald, a 215-pound bulldozer from Sewickley, Pa., smacked Western Michigan's defenses for 194 yards in 47 carries and scored all three Golden Flash touchdowns. But the Broncos won 23-20.

Fitzgerald, who now has gained 661 yards in five games, set a MAC record with his 47 rushes.

"He's the finest big back we have seen in some time," was Western Coach Bill Doolittle's observation after the game.

Lineman of the Week is Barry Sneed, Toledo's captain and stellar linebacker.

Sneed, a 5-foot-10, 210-pound senior from Troy, was tabbed for the honor for his work against Bowling Green. He accounted for 10 solo tackles and assisted on 13 others while calling defensive signals.

Despite a 14-13 loss to the Falcons, Toledo Coach Frank Lauterbur made it plain how he feels about Sneed. "Barry is our best football player," Lauterbur said.

Other backs considered were Ohio's Bob Houmard; John Schneider of Toledo; Marshall's Jim Torrence; Western's Dave Hudson, Miami's Joe Kozar and Dave Cranmer of Bowling Green.

Linemen nominated included Ed Philpott of Miami; Chet Boyer of Bowling Green; Kent's Bob Covington; Western's Dale Livingston; Tom McLaughlin of Marshall and Ohio's Gib Jepson.

Purdue Star Is Selected Top Lineman

By MURRAY CHASS

NEW YORK (AP)—The Burke boys—Frank Jr. and Chris—have a new football, and thanks to their dad, Purdue has the best shot at the Big Ten's berth in the Rose Bowl.

Frank Jr., 2, and Chris, 9 months, got the ball last Saturday night, a few hours after Frank Sr. grabbed it and scored the touchdown that gave Purdue a 22-21 victory over Michigan.

And for grabbing the ball after blocking a punt, Frank Sr. was named College Football's Lineman of the Week by The Associated Press today.

"When I got home Saturday night, the ball was the first thing my boys got hold of," said Burke, a linebacker, who at 27 is the oldest member of the Purdue squad.

Because Michigan State is ineligible to return to the Rose Bowl, the winner of the Purdue-Michigan contest would be considered the leading contender for the postseason classic.

Some seven minutes remained in the game, and Michigan's Stan Kemp dropped back a couple of yards in the end zone to punt. Burke broke through the Wolverine line at the snap.

"I kept charging," he explained, "then put my hand up in the air and blocked the kick."

The ball popped into the air, Burke outleaped the desperate Wolverines, pulled the ball in on the one and stepped gingerly into the end zone.

Burke, a 6-foot-1 215-pounder who played service football for three years in Germany, carried the ball off the field with him, surrending it only to his sons when he returned to Lafayette, Ind., that night.

GE Plant Has 2nd False Bomb Threat

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A second false bomb threat in as many days was received Tuesday at the General Electric Co.'s lamp plant here.

The latest threat, pencilled on a piece of paper found in a lady's rest room, warned there would be an explosion at the plant by last midnight. A search turned up nothing.

Kent State's Tailback Is Voted Honors

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two players who turned in outstanding efforts in a losing cause have been named Back and Lineman of the Week in the Mid-American Conference.

Kent State tailback Don Fitzgerald, a 215-pound bulldozer from Sewickley, Pa., smacked Western Michigan's defenses for 194 yards in 47 carries and scored all three Golden Flash touchdowns. But the Broncos won 23-20.

Fitzgerald, who now has gained 661 yards in five games, set a MAC record with his 47 rushes.

"He's the finest big back we have seen in some time," was Western Coach Bill Doolittle's observation after the game.

Lineman of the Week is Barry Sneed, Toledo's captain and stellar linebacker.

Sneed, a 5-foot-10, 210-pound senior from Troy, was tabbed for the honor for his work against Bowling Green. He accounted for 10 solo tackles and assisted on 13 others while calling defensive signals.

Despite a 14-13 loss to the Falcons, Toledo Coach Frank Lauterbur made it plain how he feels about Sneed. "Barry is our best football player," Lauterbur said.

Other backs considered were Ohio's Bob Houmard; John Schneider of Toledo; Marshall's Jim Torrence; Western's Dave Hudson, Miami's Joe Kozar and Dave Cranmer of Bowling Green.

Linemen nominated included Ed Philpott of Miami; Chet Boyer of Bowling Green; Kent's Bob Covington; Western's Dale Livingston; Tom McLaughlin of Marshall and Ohio's Gib Jepson.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: May I say a word to "Amazed Mother" whose child was mistreated by the dentist?

I agree that a dentist should not slap a child, but as a dental assistant for 14 years I can understand how a man can lose control of himself. Some of our child patients are impossible.

It's the mother's responsibility to educate and condition her child so he will know what to pect when he visits the dentist.

The best method is for the mother to take the child to the dentist when she goes for her appointment. The child will then see that there is nothing to fear. The dental equipment will not look so monstrous and terrifying when his time comes.

A great to-do is made these days about preparing children psychologically for a visit to the hospital or the physician's office but nobody thinks about preparing the child psychologically for the dental chair. I hope you'll print this letter.—MISS C.

Dear Miss: Thank you for a letter my readers really can sink their teeth into. (Ouch!) With the tremendous improvement in techniques and equipment these last 15 years, most of the agonies of the dental chair have been eliminated or sharply reduced.

Now it is up to the mothers, as you said in your letter, to prepare children for that first visit, an experience which can shape attitudes that may last a lifetime.

Willed Out

Dear Ann: My mother passed away last week. After the funeral I went to her home to look over her things and divide them among my brother's wife, my aunts and myself.

I was shocked to find that my aunt who lived with Mother had taken it upon herself to divide everything of value with my brother's wife and three other aunts.

The fine china and silver, her fur coat, jewelry, the good pieces of art and the family heirlooms were gone. The only things left were worn-out linens and a few pieces of costume jewelry. Their excuse was that I have a rich husband and I don't need anything.

It's true that my husband can buy me whatever I want, but I am heartsick to think that they would do this. I'm an only daughter and I certainly deserved some consideration.

Should I insist that these vultures bring back certain items? My husband says to forget it. Unfortunately, Mother left no will. Please advise. — SAD DISAPPOINTED.

Dear Sad: If you want to be tough about it you could get a lawyer into the act and exercise the legal right of next of kin. I don't recommend such action, however, because it's already so ugly that parading it before the community can only make it worse.

The lesson to be learned here is that everyone should have a will. It's the only insurance of orderly disposition of an estate.

Confidentially

TO I CAN LAUGH: So can a hyena. The question is are you big enough to forgive this unfortunate girl and keep your mouth shut about the incident?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Confidentially

TO ONE WHO HAS MADE THE SCENE BUT MISSED THE SIGNIFICANCE: I agree with you in part, but the essence of democracy is expressed not in, "I'm as good as you" — but rather in "You are as good as I." It's not enough these days to remember that you are your brother's keeper. You must remember that you are your brother's brother.

State and federal plant-pest-control officials continue to fight a successful holding action against the Japanese beetle, a serious pest of farm and orchard crops, ornamental and other plants and lawns.

U.S. Mediator Seeks To Set Negotiations

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — Federal mediator Harry Gray said Tuesday that, at the request of the striking Local 711 of the United Auto Workers, he would try today to set up a negotiating session between the union and Superior Coach Co. officials.

The strike began last Friday in a dispute over an earlier walkout that was followed by the firing of 33 employes. The fired employes were later reinstated.

On a per capita basis, Americans are expected to consume less meat, eggs, butter, milk and cream this year than in 1965, but more potatoes, chicken, turkey, margarine and fresh fruits.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures should average near normal Thursday through Monday, rising slowly from below normal to above normal during five-day period. Representative normal highs and lows: Cleveland 61-40, Columbus 63-40, Cincinnati 66-45. Showers expected early next week averaging less than .11 inch generally but about .2 inch in areas near Lake Erie.

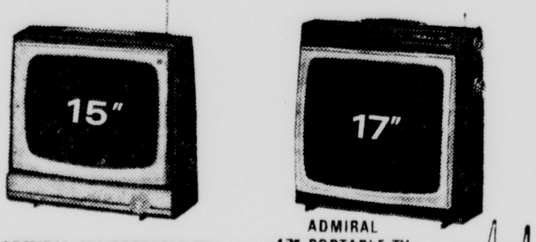

Americans spend more on pianos than on any other instrument.

'Constitutional Improvement Amendment'

West Virginia Proposal Analyzed

By HERB LITTLE

CHARLESTON (AP) — What had looked like the least controversial of five constitutional amendments that will be on the West Virginia ballot Nov. 8 has drawn opposition from a statewide organization, the West Virginia Farm Bureau.

The measure, No. 1 in the numerical order on the ballot, carries the vague but hopefully alluring title, "Constitutional Improvement Amendment." It would make simple changes in the state constitution's provision governing procedure for amending the constitution.

At present, the constitution requires that an amendment be submitted to the voters for ratification or rejection "at the next general election" after its approval by the legislature.

THE PROPOSAL to be voted on next month calls for submitting an amendment to the voters "at a special election, or at the next general election" after legislative action.

In short, a referendum on a constitutional amendment could be held either in a general election or a special election.

Del. Charles S. Armistead, a Morgantown attorney, introduced the amendment in the legislature. His idea was that overhaul of the 94-year-old constitution could be accomplished more easily and more intelligently if amendment votes took place in elections held for that purpose alone.

In theory at least, the absence of a general election campaign's distracting clamor of competing candidates and parties would make it possible for voters to be better informed on constitutional issues.

Armistead found little argument in the legislature. The amendment sailed through by votes of 100-0 in the House and 27-5 in the Senate.

THE ONLY legislative problem was a suitable title under which to present the amendment on the election ballot. Although logical, "Constitutional Amendment Amendment" was rejected as hopelessly confusing.

"Constitutiona' Improvement Amendment" was chosen on the theory that words like "good," "better", and "improvement" attract affirmative votes when a voter is confronted with a confusing array of several constitutional amendment proposals.

The amendment has won endorsements from the State Chamber of Commerce, the West Virginia Labor Federation, AFL - CIO and the executive committeee of the West Virginia Education Association (the amendment was not presented for action by the WVEA as a whole).

At a recent special meeting, voting delegates representing the 42 county units making up the West Virginia Farm Bureau, took stands against three of the five pending amendments. One of those opposed by the bureau is the "Constitutional Improvement Amendment."

The bureau's position, as reported in the October issue of its monthly publication, is:

"The purpose of this amendment would seem to be to separate constitutional issues from the election of candidates. Thus in a special election on proposed amendments, probably, only those voters who felt strongly on one or more proposals would vote.

"The holding of special elections for submission of proposed amendments to the voters would increase the costs to the taxpayers besides reducing the size of the vote."

NOT MENTIONED by the Farm Bureau, but apparently also in the picture, are misgivings about possibly making it easier to tamper with constitutional property tax limitations.

The amendment also would make two other changes, neither very sweeping, in provisions governing submission of amendments to the voters by the legislature.

The constitution now says an amendment may be proposed in either house but does not specify when this may be done. Under the amendment, the action could take place "at any regular or extraordinary session" of the legislature.

This is intended to free the legislature, where constitutional revision is concerned, from present constitutional provisions which restrict the agenda in extraordinary sessions and in the 30-day regular sessions held in the even-numbered years.

Where the vote on constitutional amendments takes place at the same time as election of candidates, the pending amendment would require that the constitutional issues be placed on a separate ballot. This is permissible now but not a constitutional requirement.

One Of Youngest Agency Heads

Shulman, EOC Director, Says Being Bald Helps

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's at least one man in the United States who is glad he is bald. Stephen N. Shulman, new chairman of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

At 32, Shulman is one of the youngest agency chiefs in Washington, and he is just as happy to look older.

To Shulman, a graduate of Harvard University and Yale University Law School, responsibility has come early.

At 28 he was an executive assistant to then Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg.

At 29 he was a deputy assistant secretary of defense in charge of personnel, industrial relations and civil rights.

By the time he was 30, Shulman was general counsel of the Air Force.

Several weeks ago he took over the post vacated when Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. resigned to campaign for governor of New York.

Has Shulman found any resentment from the many older government employes — including generals and admirals — who have worked under him?

"I never found that to be a problem," he said in an interview — his first since becoming commission chairman. "I think the fact I'm bald is a tremendous help."

But Shulman said he was embarrassed "when a full colonel or a general called me sir."

Shulman now is in a young agency — it's only about a year and a half old. Its personnel is also mostly young. Shulman believes the average commission employe age to be younger than that of other agencies.

Facing this new commission is a backlog of about six months work. About 2,000 of 9,000 complaints received by the commission in its first year haven't cleared initial screening.

Other cases are at various stages, with the six-month jam in the area of conciliation — getting employers to stop discriminatory practices.

It is the commission's job to enforce the provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 which bar employment discrimination based on race, religion, national origin or sex.

The commission screens cases for probable discrimination. If it finds there has been some, it attempts to get the employer to stop discriminating. If this fails it can refer the case to the attorney general or the complaining employe can file his own suit in court.

$135,000 Verdict Won By Monaca Man For Injury

A 47-year-old Monaca man has been awarded a $135,000 verdict in a personal injury court action stemming from a river barge mishap in 1962.

Louis Deviocentius of Monaca claimed he suffered back and head injuries when knocked into the cargo section of a barge tied on the Ohio River near Monaca Nov. 26, 1962.

His suit contended the barge, owned by the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad Co., was improperly moored and thus an unsafe place to work.

The award was made by a U. S. District Court jury following a trial before Judge John Miller at Pittsburgh.

Fined In Litter Case

NEW CUMBERLAND — Mrs. Nancy Linger 24, of Chester was fined $20 and costs for littering in a hearing Tuesday before Squire John D. Herrod. She was cited by Carl Kirkland, conservation officer.

Republic Reports Record Quarter Earnings, Sales

CLEVELAND (AP) — Record third quarter earnings and sales were reported by Republic Steel Corp. Tuesday.

The nation's third largest steel producer also reported its net income for the first nine months of the year was higher than that for the corresponding period of 1965 but that sales declined.

T. F. Patton, chairman, said net income for the three months ended Sept. 30 was $24,200,702 equal to $1.50 a share of common stock, compared with $18,231,916, or $1.03 a share, in the third quarter of last year.

Sales for the third quarter this year totaled $363,870,351, compared with $349,421,136 last year.

Earnings for the first nine months this year totaled $69,864,962 equal to $4.41 a share, compared with $63,961,382, or $4.05 a share, in the corresponding period of last year.

Sales for the first nine months this year totaled $1,005,314,143, compared with $1,116,642,524 in the corresponding period last year.

Compromise Wage Agreement

350 Chicago Nurses End 2-Day Sick Call Boycott

CHICAGO (AP) — A compromise wage agreement with some 350 practical nurses at Cook County Hospital Tuesday night ended a two-day sick-call boycott.

The nurses were to report to work today.

Robert J. Mackie, executive director of the Cook County Nursing School, said terms of the agreement would not be made known until all the nurses involved are informed of the provisions.

The terms were agreed upon by officials of the nursing school and a committee representing the Licensed Practical Nurses Association.

Most of the nurses telephoned in sick on the morning shift Monday. All 348 reported sick by the midnight shift. Three nurses reported to work Tuesday, Mackie said.

During the boycott, only emergency patients were admitted to the 2,747-bed hospital, which officials say is the nation's largest public hospital. Maternity cases were sent elsewhere.

The 600 registered nurses worked double shifts and days off during the boycott.

The nurses demanded wage increases from beginning monthly salaries of $352 to $425. Increases to $405 were offered by the Nursing School Board, which contracted with the Cook County Board of Commissioners to provide nursing personnel for the hospital.

The registered nurses, after threatening mass resignations, were granted $90 pay increases in September.

The practical nurses work in obstetric and pediatric sections and in recovery wards of the hospital.

Youth To Serve 30-Day Detention

LISBON — A 17-year-old Lisbon youth will have to spend 30 days in detention at Columbiana County Jail for stealing checks and cashing them in Lisbon stores.

Judge Louis Toum of Juvenile Court set a 60-day detention period Tuesday, but suspended 30 days on condition the youth makes restitution of $160 to the people defrauded.

At a court hearing two weeks ago, the youth admitted stealing and cashing checks for a total of $140. Investigators uncovered another stolen check after that hearing.

They said the youth preyed on elderly women, particularly by asking for a drink of water. Once inside the house, he would ask to use the bathroom and while upstairs would search for things of value, they said.

Judge Convicts Man At Hearing

Ernest Carter, 41, of 708 11th St., Wellsville, was convicted Tuesday afternoon in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon of a charge of failure to provide his four children with necessary or proper home, care, food and clothing.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard, who returned the verdict, deferred sentencing and continued Carter's $1,000 recognizance bond to give him an opportunity to file a motion for a new trial.

Carter waived a jury trial Monday afternoon and requested a trial by the court. He admitted failing to meet support payments ordered by Juvenile Court, explaining he has only part-time work and has been bothered by an ulcer.

He denied neglecting the children and said he gave them money and bought clothes and groceries whenever he had money. He testified he made less than $600 last year and has earned only $450 to $500 this year.

Carter and his wife are separated. The children are with her.

Judge Buzzard noted Carter's strong build and said he cannot understand why he couldn't earn $50 a week while his wife, who works as a maid, earns $46 per week take-home pay. The court said the defendant fell far short of giving the children a proper home.

Groups of approximately 20 will join in three sessions throughout the day, at which consultants in various phases of education will speak. The fourth session will be used to view educational exhibits on display in the school gymnasium. Speakers will include Harold Meyer of the Ohio High School Athletic Association and Juvenile Court Judge Louis Tobin.

Fifty - four experts from the Ohio State Department of Education, academically - oriented business firms and area colleges and universities also will be on hand to speak as consultants and lead question-answer discussions.

Pelini said he is expecting 54 exhibitors, with displays ranging from textbooks to audio-visual equipment.

Registration will be at 8 a.m. Friday and an orientation is scheduled for 9 a.m., with a welcome and opening talk by Supt. Paul Blair. The sessions will continue until 11:30 a.m., when there will be a 90-minute lunch break. The closing remarks are scheduled for 3:30 p.m.

School districts sending personnel to the conference include East Liverpool, Salem, Beaver Local, East Palestine, Wellsville, Columbiana, Lisbon, United Local, Southern Local, Leetonia and Fairfield - Waterford.

Representatives of County School Supt. James McBride's office at Lisbon also will be present.

Schools in the various county school systems will be closed Friday to permit teachers to take part in the program.

One Of Youngest Agency Heads

Shulman, EOC Director, Says Being Bald Helps

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's at least one man in the United States who is glad he is bald. Stephen N. Shulman, new chairman of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

At 33, Shulman is one of the youngest agency chiefs in Washington, and he is just as happy to look older.

To Shulman, a graduate of Harvard University and Yale University Law School, responsibility has come early.

At 28 he was an executive assistant to then Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg.

At 29 he was a deputy assistant secretary of defense in charge of personnel, industrial relations and civil rights.

By the time he was 32, Shulman was general counsel of the Air Force.

Several weeks ago, he took over the post vacated when Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. resigned to campaign for governor of New York.

Has Shulman found any resentment from the many older government employes — including generals and admirals — who have worked under him?

"I never found that to be a problem," he said in an interview — his first since becoming commission chairman. "I think the fact I'm bald is a tremendous help."

But Shulman said he was embarrassed "when a full colonel or a general called me 'sir.'"

Shulman now is in a young agency — it's only about a year and a half old. Its personnel is also mostly young. Shulman believes the average commission employe age to be younger than that of other agencies.

Facing this new commission is a backlog of about six months' work. About 2,000 of 9,000 complaints received by the commission in its first year haven't cleared initial screening.

Other cases are at various stages, with the six-month jam in the area of conciliation — getting employers to stop discriminatory practices.

It is the commission's job to enforce the provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 which bar employment discrimination based on race, religion, national origin or sex.

The commission screens cases for probable discrimination. If it finds there has been some, it attempts to get the employer to stop discriminating. If this fails it can refer the case to the attorney general or the complaining employe can file his own suit in court.

$135,000 Verdict Won By Monaca Man For Injury

A 47-year-old Monaca man has been awarded a $135,000 verdict in a personal injury court action stemming from a river barge mishap in 1962.

Louis Deviocentus of Monaca claimed he suffered back and leg injuries when knocked into the cargo section of a barge tied on the Ohio River near Monaca Nov. 26, 1962.

His suit contended the barge owned by the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad Co., was improperly moored and thus an unsafe place to work.

The award was made by a U. S. District Court jury following a trial before Judge John Miller at Pittsburgh.

NEW CUMBERLAND — Mrs. Nancy Linger, 24, of Chester was fined $20 and costs for littering in a hearing Tuesday before Squire John D. Herron. She was cited by Carl Kirkland, conservation officer.

Republic Reports Record Quarter Earnings, Sales

CLEVELAND (AP) — Record third quarter earnings and sales were reported by Republic Steel Corp. Tuesday.

The nation's third largest steel producer also reports its net income for the first nine months of the year was higher than that for the corresponding period of 1965, but that sales declined.

T. F. Patton, chairman, said net income for the three months ended Sept. 30 was $24,290,722 equal to $1.53 a share of common stock, compared with $16,231,916, or $1.03 a share, in the third quarter of last year.

Sales for the third quarter this year totaled $350,870,351, compared with $349,421,136 last year.

Earnings for the first nine months this year totaled $69,464,962, equal to $4.41 a share, compared with $60,961,382, or $4.06 a share, in the corresponding period of last year.

Sales for the first nine months this year totaled $1,005,314,149, compared with $1,116,642,524 in the corresponding period last year.

Compromise Wage Agreement

350 Chicago Nurses End 2-Day Sick Call Boycott

CHICAGO (AP) — A compromise wage agreement with some 350 practical nurses at Cook County Hospital Tuesday night ended a two-day sick-call boycott.

The nurses were to report to work today.

Robert J. Mackie, executive director of the Cook County Nursing School, said terms of the agreement would not be made known until all the nurses involved are informed of the provisions.

The terms were agreed upon by officials of the nursing school and a committee representing the Licensed Practical Nurses Association.

Most of the nurses telephoned in sick on the morning shift Monday. All 346 reported sick by the midnight shift. Three nurses reported to work Tuesday, Mackie said.

During the boycott, only emergency patients were admitted to the 2,747-bed hospital, which officials say is the nation's largest public hospital. Maternity cases were sent elsewhere.

The 600 registered nurses worked double shifts and days off during the boycott.

The nurses demanded wage increases from beginning monthly salaries of $352 to $425. Increases to $405 were offered by the Nursing School Board, which contracted with the Cook County Board of Commissioners to provide nursing personnel for the hospital.

The registered nurses, after threatening mass resignations, were granted $90 pay increases in September.

The practical nurses work in obstetric and pediatric sections and in recovery wards of the hospital.

Youth To Serve 30-Day Detention

LISBON — A 17-year-old Lisbon youth will have to spend 30 days in detention at Columbiana County Jail for stealing checks and cashing them in Lisbon stores.

Judge Louis Tobin of Juvenile Court set a 60-day detention period Tuesday, but suspended 30 days on condition the youth makes restitution of $160 to the people defrauded.

At a court hearing two weeks ago, the youth admitted stealing and cashing checks for a total of $140. Investigators uncovered another stolen check after that hearing.

They said the youth preyed on elderly women, particularly by asking for a drink of water. Once inside the house, he would ask to use the bathroom and while upstairs would search for things of value, they said.

Judge Convicts Man At Hearing

Ernest Carter, 41, of 708 11th St., Wellsville, was convicted Tuesday afternoon in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon of a charge of failure to provide his four children with necessary or proper home, care, food and clothing.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard, who returned the verdict, deferred sentencing and continued Carter's $1,000 recognizance bond to give him an opportunity to file a motion for a new trial.

Carter waived a jury trial Monday afternoon and requested a trial by the court. He admitted failing to meet support payments ordered by Juvenile Court, explaining he has only part-time work and has been bothered by an ulcer.

He denied neglecting the children and said he gave them money and bought clothes and groceries whenever he had money. He testified he made less than $600 last year and has earned only $450 to $500 this year.

Carter and his wife are separated. The children are with her.

Judge Buzzard noted Carter's strong build and said he cannot understand why he couldn't earn $50 a week while his wife, who works as a maid, earns $46 per week take-home pay. The court said the defendant fell far short of giving the children a proper home.

Tire Blowout Cited In Fatal Road Mishap

A tire blowout caused the auto - tractor - trailer collision late Tuesday morning on Route 7 near Toronto which claimed the life of Charles Sylvester Taylor, 29, of 135 Spring St., Toronto, the Wintersville State Highway Patrol said today.

Mr. Taylor died at 11:27 a.m. at City Hospital of head injuries suffered when he was hurled from his 1960 model compact auto after a head-on collision with a tractor - trailer operated by Walter F. Silver, 48, of 1228 Baltimore St., Wheeling.

The patrol said Mr. Taylor was pinned partially under his demolished auto. The tractor - trailer driver complained of a leg injury, but did not require treatment at a hospital.

The collision was timed at 11 a.m., nine - tenths of a mile south of State Route 213 and 45 feet north of the Stratton north corporation line.

The tractor - trailer rig was northbound and Mr. Taylor was driving south, the patrol said.

Mr. Taylor was attempting to pass another southbound vehicle when his small car hit the concrete divider, causing the left front tire to blow out. He lost control of the auto, which jumped the divider and hit the tractor - trailer head-on.

Mr. Taylor was born in Port Homer July 3, 1937, a son of Edith Van Filburg Taylor of Wellsville and the late Thomas Taylor. He was employed by the Townsend and Bottum Construction Co. He was a member of the Port Homer Mission Church.

Beaver Raps Tax Ruling From Court

BEAVER — The Beaver County commissioners, sitting as the county board of tax assessment, today took exception to a recent Pennsylvania Supreme Court ruling involving the taxes on industrial property.

The commissioners labeled as unfair the ruling which affirmed industrial assessment appeals on manufacturing facilities which contended such facilities are in effect machinery.

The Beaver County Courts have held up decisions involving the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. and American Bridge Co., but are expected of necessity to follow the high court's stand, and affect the total tax structure of Beaver County.

The county commissioners said of the ruling which involved Bucks County appeals the decision "has placed in jeopardy the basic tax structures of hundreds of communities in the Commonwealth."

The commissioners said they believed the Court has overlooked the public interest and general welfare in performing judicial functions in the manner of taxes.

"We cannot hope to challenge the court's knowledge and training but time after time it seems the assessment appeals from industry are affirmed despite the skillful and honest presentation of the facts by county assessors."

Tire Blowout Cited In Fatal Road Mishap

A tire blowout caused the auto - tractor - trailer collision late Tuesday morning on Route 7 near Toronto which claimed the life of Charles Sylvester Taylor, 29, of 135 Spring St., Toronto, the Wintersville State Highway Patrol said today.

Mr. Taylor died at 11:27 a.m. at City Hospital of head injuries suffered when he was hurled from his 1960 model compact auto after a head-on collision with a tractor - trailer operated by Walter F. Silver, 48, of 1228 Baltimore St., Wheeling.

The patrol said Mr. Taylor was pinned partially under his demolished auto. The tractor - trailer driver complained of a leg injury, but did not require treatment at a hospital.

The collision was timed at 11 a.m., nine - tenths of a mile south of State Route 213 and 45 feet north of the Stratton north corporation line.

The tractor - trailer rig was northbound and Mr. Taylor was driving south, the patrol said.

Mr. Taylor was attempting to pass another southbound vehicle when his small car hit the concrete divider, causing the left front tire to blow out. He lost control of the auto, which jumped the divider and hit the tractor - trailer head-on.

Mr. Taylor was born in Port Homer July 3, 1937, a son of Edith Van Filburg Taylor of Wellsville and the late Thomas Taylor. He was employed by the Townsend and Bottum Construction Co. He was a member of the Port Homer Mission Church.

In addition to his mother, he leaves three sisters, Mrs. Tracy Elder of Knoxville, Miss Martha Taylor at home and Miss Nancy Taylor of East Liverpool, and five brothers, James A. Taylor of West Palm Beach, Fla., Richard Taylor of Toronto, Thomas H. Taylor, with the armed forces in Viet Nam, Ernest Taylor, with the armed forces in Germany, and Eugene Taylor, at home.

Services will be held Friday at 1 p. m. at the Clarke Funeral Home in Toronto by the Rev. Stephen Bender and the Rev. James Conrad of the Port Homer Mission Church.

Friends may call today and Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m.

Burial will be in Sugar Grove Cemetery, Empire.

Beaver Raps Tax Ruling From Court

BEAVER — The Beaver County commissioners, sitting as the county board of tax assessment, today took exception to a recent Pennsylvania Supreme Court ruling involving the taxes on industrial property.

The commissioners labeled as unfair the ruling which affirmed industrial assessment appeals on manufacturing facilities which contended such facilities are in effect machinery.

The Beaver County Courts have held up decisions involving the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. and American Bridge Co., but are expected of necessity to follow the high court's stand, and affect the total tax structure of Beaver County.

The county commissioners said of the ruling which involved Bucks County appeals the decision "has placed in jeopardy the basic tax structures of hundreds of communities in the Commonwealth."

The commissioners said they believed the Court has overlooked the public interest and general welfare in performing judicial functions in the manner of taxes.

"We cannot hope to challenge the court's knowledge and training but time after time it seems the assessment appeals from industry are affirmed despite the skillful and honest presentation of the facts by county assessors."

Construction Of Lake Erie Pipeline System Seen Need

BUCYRUS, Ohio (AP)—Construction of a Lake Erie pipelines system is needed to provide for water needs near the lake, according to a preliminary report presented to the Ohio Water Commission and the Water Development Council of Northwest Ohio.

The Columbus consulting firm of Burgess & Niple told the two groups here Tuesday that the system should be built in such a way as to permit later extension inland.

The plan also calls for use of "elevated lakes" to control stream flow on tributaries of the Sandusky basin as a key factor in managing northwest Ohio's water resources.

Burgess & Niple proposed multipurpose upground reservoirs — "man made elevated lakes"—as "the best available approach to saving for use and managing the flow of local runoff water."

Also proposed was test drilling and test pumping to assure "the most complete development possible of well-water resources" to meet the needs of many communities, industries and farms.

Other ideas included channel protective levees and low dams near stream headquarters, stream monitoring stations to check on pollution, and a system of saving flood water for release during drought.

The preliminary plan was outlined at the first in a series of meetings in the region consisting of 27 counties or parts of counties in the basins of the Sandusky, Portage, Maumee, Huron, Vermilion and Black Rivers.

The next meeting will be Nov. 16 at Napoleon, where emphasis in the discussions will be placed on the Maumee Basin.

Construction Of Lake Erie Pipeline System Seen Need

BUCYRUS, Ohio (AP)—Construction of a Lake Erie pipelines system is needed to provide for water needs near the lake, according to a preliminary report presented to the Ohio Water Commission and the Water Development Council of Northwest Ohio.

The Columbus consulting firm of Burgess & Niple told the two groups here Tuesday that the system should be built in such a way as to permit later extension inland.

The plan also calls for use of "elevated lakes" to control stream flow on tributaries of the Sandusky basin as a key factor in managing northwest Ohio's water resources.

Burgess & Niple proposed multipurpose upground reservoirs — "man made elevated lakes"—as "the best available approach to saving for use and managing the flow of local runoff water."

Also proposed was test drilling and test pumping to assure "the most complete development possible of well-water resources" to meet the needs of many communities, industries and farms.

Other ideas included channel protective levees and low dams near stream headquarters, stream monitoring stations to check on pollution, and a system of saving flood water for release during drought.

The preliminary plan was outlined at the first in a series of meetings in the region consisting of 27 counties or parts of counties in the basins of the Sandusky, Portage, Maumee, Huron, Vermilion and Black Rivers.

The next meeting will be Nov. 16 at Napoleon, where emphasis in the discussions will be placed on the Maumee Basin.

Elizabeth Arden Taken By Death

NEW YORK (AP) — Elizabeth Arden, 84, who started out with a $600 loan and a face cream formula and became one of the few women among the world's true tycoons, died Tuesday.

At her death, she was the queen of an industrial empire with beauty salons or manufacturing plants in Europe, Africa, Australia and South America as well as all over the United States.

The Canadian girl, who quit school before she was 18 and thought of being a nurse, had become the owner of a famed horse racing stable, patron of opera and art and friend as well as beauty consultant to some of the world's wealthiest and best-known women.

Club's Taken On Cruise By Color Slides

The cruise originated in Cincinnati and proceeded down the Ohio, with stops at Louisville and Paducah, Ky., and Evansville, Madison and Rising Sun, Ind.

A. T. Knabb was a visiting Rotarian at yesterday's meeting.

Other visitors included H. Jud English, Baxter Green and Clifford Lynch.

Christmas Parade Plans Discussed By Merchants

The East Liverpool Merchants Association, meeting Tuesday in the Chamber of Commerce office, discussed plans for the traditional post - Thanksgiving parade to welcome Santa Claus to East Liverpool and officially usher in the holiday season.

The parade will be held the evening of Nov. 25 — the day after Thanksgiving — a date that has become traditional over the years.

The parade preparations were discussed by Charles Lang, Junior Chamber president, and Richard Chadwick, parade committee chairman of the Jaycees. The parade is staged annually as a joint effort of the Jaycees and the merchants.

Harold Allison, chairman of the ELMA Christmas activities committee, reported that work has started on renovation of cross - street holiday decorations and that the job of preparing to erect them will begin in about a week.

A schedule of Christmas season store hours was discussed. A detailed breakdown of the hours will be announced before the shopping season opens.

The businessmen also held a general discussion on year-round store hours. It was decided that any contemplated changes would go into effect after Jan. 1. A questionnaire will be submitted in the meantime to the members to obtain their suggestions.

George A. Shaw and Joseph D. Coons were named to draft the questionnaire.

Max Shoff, chairman of the promotion committee, reported on the Fall Harvest of Values sale sponsored by ELMA Oct. 6-8. The sale was termed a success.

E. R. Chandler, executive secretary, reported that the local office of the Ohio State Employment Service has advised that a number of students at the Kent State Academic Center here are available for part-time employment. Persons who need part - time employes should contact Charles Boso, OSES manager, he said.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 15.

Earthquake Leveled Chief Port In Peru

CALLAO, Peru (AP) — It took nature only 55 seconds to strike the Peruvian port of Callao a blow from which it won't recover for years.

At 4:42 p.m. Monday, Callao was bustling with the activity that goes with being Peru's major seaport and the maritime gateway to Lima, seven miles to the east.

By 4:53, the shock wave from a massive earthquake a few miles offshore had struck the city with unbelievable force and 32 persons were dead or dying. Most were children crushed when roofs of the makeshift huts in the slums known as barriadas collapsed.

More than 70 persons were hospitalized. Another 250 had minor injuries.

Glass, plaster and walls of buildings tumbled into the streets or collapsed inward, trapping some residents.

Panic spread, then mounted as a rumor flashed through the city that a tidal wave was rushing toward the coast. There was a tidal wave, but it headed out into the Pacific, not inland, and dissipated.

Pedestrians were warned away from buildings with gaping cracks in the walls along the main street.

Former Convict Ruled Out Of '62 Slaying Of Coed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— A 26-year-old inmate of an Oklahoma jail, who confessed to the slaying of a Columbus business college coed, has been ruled out of any involvement in the 1962 murder.

"We don't believe he was connected with the crime," said Police Lt. Francis Smith, one of two Columbus detectives who went to Oklahoma City following Herbert A. Golightly's confession.

"He doesn't know enough about it," Smith said Tuesday, adding, "he has a certain bit of information, but on key points we're certain he doesn't have the answers."

Golightly had volunteered a statement about the slaying of Mary Margaret Andrews. But checks showed he apparently was confined in the Huntsville, Tex., Prison at the time of the crime.

Golightly named a 33-year-old Ohio Penitentiary inmate as his accomplice in the Andrews slaying, but detectives said they do not plan to question the convict until completing their interrogation of Golightly.

Until 1867 no woman was allowed to climb to the summit of Mt. Fuji.

"He doesn't know enough about it," Smith said Tuesday, adding, "he has a certain bit of information, but on key points we're certain he doesn't have the answers."

Golightly had volunteered a statement about the slaying of Mary Margaret Andrews. But checks showed he apparently was confined in the Huntsville, Tex., Prison at the time of the crime.

Golightly named a 33-year-old Ohio Penitentiary inmate as his accomplice in the Andrews slaying, but detectives said they do not plan to question the convict until completing their interrogation of Golightly.

Until 1867 no woman was allowed to climb to the summit of Mt. Fuji.

Declare U.S. Unilateral War Victor In Viet, LBJ Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George D. Aiken urged today that President Johnson unilaterally declare the United States the military victor in Viet Nam and announce "that this stage of the Viet Nam war is over."

Such a declaration, the Vermont Republican said, would remove the problem of U. S. military face-saving, restore political rather than military warfare as the dominant theme and open the way to negotiations.

"It is important to stress that no politician in the United States, in Europe or even in Russia is likely to challenge a unilateral declaration of military victory on our part," said Aiken, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in a speech prepared for the Senate.

If the Viet Cong, the North Vientamese or the Red Chinese should challenge the declaration, Aiken said, they would be directly challenging the ability of U. S. military power and thus assuming responsibility for broadening the war.

Aiken asserted that the victory declaration should be accompanied by a gradual redeployment of the U. S. forces around strategic centers and the substitution of reconnaissance for bombing.

Aiken said his suggestion was designed to "remove the credibility of U. S. military power — or more loosely the question of 'face' — as the factor which precludes a political solution."

The United States began its military buildup in Viet Nam in 1965 because "there actually existed a clear and present danger of military defeat for the American forces" who already were there, he said.

But, said Aiken, the administration used North Vietnamese aggression, rather than the danger of military defeat, as the reason for escalation.

Aiken argued the situation has changed, contending American forces no longer face a danger of defeat.

West End Crash Damages 2 Cars

Two cars were damaged in a collision Tuesday at 9:47 p.m. on the four - lane stretch of W. 8th St. at Church St., police reported.

The mishap involved a 1965 sedan driven by Bruce A. Ensinger, 17, of 1819 Clark Ave., Wellsville, and a 1962 sedan operated by Charles F. Turner Jr., 22, of Buffalo, N. Y. Both were westbound.

Ensinger told Patrolman W.F. Copestick he was driving upgrade in the right - hand lane when Turner pulled in front of him. Turner told the officer he was midway between the two lanes, planning to make a right turn. There was damage to the front of the Ensinger car and the right rear of the Turner auto, police said.

Another mishap at 12:50 p.m. Tuesday on Orchard Grove Ave. involved a 1960 model car driven by Peggy E. Nichols, 31, of Gaddes St. and a 1961 car operated by Frank F. Hopper, 45, of 821 Orchard Grove Ave.

Hopper said his car was halted when hit from the rear by the woman's auto. The woman said her car was halted, but drifted forward while she was attempting to wipe an object from her eye. Hopper was X-rayed at City Hospital for possible neck injuries.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1966 EAST LIVERPOOL REVIEW, EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

David Brinkley believes more than ever in segregating news from show business. We won't see him appearing on Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show to help plug NBC's election coverage next month, for example.

Hal Humphrey

The subject came up because at CBS it was revealed recently that Walter Cronkite, Harry Reasoner and Mike Wallace will be making "walk-on" appearances in the Garry Moore, "Capt. Kangaroo" and "I've Got a Secret" shows for the purpose of stimulating viewer interest in CBS newsmen who'll bring us the election returns.

"I WOULDN'T DO IT, and I suspect the CBS guys don't want to, so why are they? I don't know," says Brinkley, and adds:

"People have a tough enough time distinguishing between entertainment and news personalities anyway. I've had them come up to me and ask, 'Do you know Milton Berle?' They see us on the same tube and imagine we're all in the same bullpen."

Brinkley, who with teammate Chet Huntley celebrates the 10th anniversary with the "Huntley-Brinkley Report" this month, is convinced that the steady increase in its rating can be credited to its improvement as a news program and the fact viewers take them seriously, including the President of the United States.

"WE'RE NO LONGER a novelty and people have come to believe we are honest because we are. I have almost absolute independence. Nobody at NBC knows what I'm going to talk about until I do it. If some sponsor's cold pill is pronounced no good by the Food and Drug Administration, I would blast it on the air without a second thought," Brinkley maintains.

Sponsors don't even call the network to complain or comment on what Huntley and Brinkley are doing, as they've been known to do in the past.

The tide might be said to have turned in the network newsman's favor three years ago when Huntley-Brinkley and Walter Cronkite managed to rid themselves of those commercial "lead - ins" which called for them to say "—— and now a word from Handy-Andy razor strops."

"WE'RE NOT starving or scared now. Our news program makes money for the network—lots of money. It's no longer a loss - leader," adds Brinkley, "and this gives you lots of freedom."

It was Brinkley's own idea to be in California last week for a cursory look at and some reports on the state's coming gubernatorial race between Gov. Pat Brown and actor Ronald Reagan. Like most Easterners, Brinkley is fascinated with the phenomenon of an actor running for governor of the biggest-populated state and says:

"There's really no reason why an actor shouldn't run for office, and I guess it happens in California because this is where most actors are. As for Ronnie, I think he's about as good a candidate as he was an actor, which is to say mediocre."

AS A TV personality himself, Brinkley understands how easy it is to become a political candidate in this electronic age. Both he and Chet Huntley have been asked to run for the U.S. Senate from their respective home states of North Carolina and Montana.

"It's easy to understand. With Chet and me the party chairmen deliver ready-made names and faces. I don't think Chet is interested and I politely said no. I'm probably too liberal for North Carolina anyway," says Brinkley.

The Brinkley news future is assured, of course, although he is not sure in what form.

WHAT HE DREAMS of quite often is getting away from the "hog - tied" five-nights-a-week and doing a deeper, more leisurely news program similar to his old Brinkley's Journal, which he had to give up when his and Huntley's NBC news spot expanded to the half hour three years ago.

"I deliberately won't go to Viet Nam," he says, "because it would mean being met at the Saigon airport with a microphone and having to talk about something I couldn't possibly know anything about until I'd had at least two weeks to look around."

Wages, Working Conditions

Musicians Threatening To Lay Down Instruments

By The Associated Press

Musicians from symphonic halls to discotheque dance floors are threatening in increasing numbers to lay down their instruments if their demands for more money and better working conditions are not met.

Dissatisfaction has spread from New York's night clubs and show spots to San Francisco's Concert Hall and in many cabarets and opera houses the show hasn't gone on.

The result has been empty orchestra pits, darkened stages and 11th-hour bargaining.

In New York City, a strike by members of Local 802 of the AFL-CIO American Federation of Musicians ended Tuesday night after the city's hotel association agreed to reduce their work week from five to six days and grant salary increases to a base pay of approximately $167.

The agreement, yet to be ratified by the membership, also provides arbitration of job security disputes, a major stumbling block.

During the two-day walkout the entertainment rooms and dance floors of some hotels were closed and Maurice Chevalier sang without accompaniment at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Members of the Philadelphia Orchestra have been on strike since their contract expired Sept. 15.

Twelve concerts in Philadelphia and one in Baltimore have been canceled. Orchestra members held a benefit concert Friday, led by conductor Leopold Stokowski, and raised $15,000 for the strike fund.

The members now make a minimum of $10,000 a year, plus a $2,000 recording fee, but they want $16,000 annually. The orchestra association has offered a five-year pact with a total minimum pay of $14,500 the last year. Negotiations have been sporadic.

Musicians in the San Francisco Symphony threatened a strike two years ago and the season was reinstated only after the Musicians Union signed a three-year contract providing $190-a-week for 30-week season. There have been indications of trouble when the contract expires.

Not all musicians are unhappy. Harmony was reported in Seattle, Wash., Boston, Los Angeles, Louisville, Ky., Atlanta, Ga., Cleveland, Ohio, Nashville, Tenn., Chicago, Detroit and Dallas, Tex.

Once A Pennsylvania Farm Boy

Sebastian S. Kresge, 99, Chain Store Owner, Dies

EAST STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Sebastian S. Kresge, millionaire chain store owner, died at East Stroudsburg General Hospital Tuesday night at age 99.

A hospital spokesman said Kresge, who retired as board chairman of the Kresge chain earlier this year, died of infirmities of age. He had been in the hospital since July.

Kresge, once a Pennsylvania Dutch farm boy, will be interred in a $75,000 mausoleum he had built two years ago outside nearby Kresgeville, a town named for the Kresge family.

A company spokesman said all 900 Kresge stores in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico will be closed Friday when funeral services will be held from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. at the Methodist church in Mountainhome, Pa.

Kresge's life was marked by frugality.

"I've never spent more than 20 cents a day for lunch in my life and it hasn't killed me," he once told a newsman.

As a philanthropist, the man who entered the dime store business with $5,000 and left it with more than $200 million contributed up to $65 million to his own foundation.

Kresge was born July 31, 1867, on a farm near Bald Mount, Pa., where, at the age of 14, a neighbor gave him a beehive.

In five years the youngster had five beehives, and gave the profits to his father. During the depression years of the 1890's, Kresge restored rusty stoves and managed to save $8,000.

He invested this in a store with J.G. McCrory in Memphis, Tenn. A year later, they bought a store in Detroit, and in 1899, Kresge traded his share in the Memphis store for complete control of the Detroit branch. This was the beginning of the Kresge chain.

In 1924 Kresge divorced Anna Harvey, whom he married 1897. Kresge's second marriage was to Doris Mercer, an aspiring opera singer, but they were divorced four years later. In October 1928, he married Clara K. Swaine, a divorcee, and the two lived in Mountainhome until Kresge's recent health failure.

Survivors include the widow and five children from Kresge's first marriage. The children include his sons Stanley S. of Debusiness with $5,000 and left it with more than $200 million contributed up to $65 million to his own foundation.

Peace Corpsmen Win Delay Of Cut In Living Allowances

IBADAN, Nigeria (AP) — With help from a local political crisis, U.S. Peace Corps members in Nigeria have won postponement of a cut in their living allowances. But some of them say their bosses still don't understand them.

Peace Corps Director Jack Hood Vaughn, who rushed to Nigeria three months ahead of schedule after the volunteers threatened to strike, announced Tuesday no changes would be made in living allowances "until the situation in Nigeria returns to normal."

Tribal hostilities are threatening to split the nation. Observers feel it will be a long time before local politics returns to normal.

The corps members threatened last month to strike after reports that their living allowance of about $149 a month would be cut $5 to $15. With about 700 volunteers, the mission in Nigeria is the second largest in the world.

Since his arrival Oct. 8, Vaughn has had 19 meetings with the volunteers. He plans several more before leaving Oct. 25 for South Korea.

He said Tuesday that the proposed cut in living allowances would be postponed because prices are fluctuating so rapidly in the current uncertain political situation that it is impossible to work out a formula based on the cost of living.

The volunteers said the strike threats were made "in desperation" to get policymakers in Washington to hear their complaints. They protested that decisions were being made without consulting workers in the field.

"I think the Peace Corps missed the point of protest," said Joe Foster, 23, of Carmel, Calif. "They have been treating us like high school kids."

Johnson Accepts Hare Resignation

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — President Johnson accepted "with genuine regret" today the resignation of one of America's top career diplomats, Raymond Hare.

Hare rose through the Foreign Service to hold ambassadorial and other senior positions in a career spanning nearly 40 years. Recently he has been assistant secretary of state for Near Eastern and South Asian affairs.

In an exchange of letters made public by the traveling White House, Hare told the President he intends to become head of the Middle East Institute in Washington. He has long been an expert on Middle East affairs.

Hare, 65, said he has passed the retirement age and feels it is time to step aside "in favor of the many fine younger officers on their way up."

Dies In Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Airman 1.c. David P. States, whose widow lives at Fairborn, Ohio, it was reported by the Defense Department Tuesday as having recently died of non-hostile cause in Viet Nam.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

David Brinkley believes more than ever in segregating news from show business. We won't see him appearing on Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show to help plug NBC's election coverage next month, for example.

Hal Humphrey

The subject came up because at CBS it was revealed recently that Walter Cronkite, Harry Reasoner and Mike Wallace will be making "walk-on" appearances in the Garry Moore "Capt. Kangaroo" and "I've Got a Secret" shows for the purpose of stimulating viewer interest in CBS newsmen who'll bring us the election returns.

...

"I WOULDN'T DO IT, and I suspect the CBS guys don't want to, so why are they? I don't know," says Brinkley, and adds:

"People have a tough enough time distinguishing between entertainment and news personalities anyway. I've had them come up to me and ask, 'Do you know Milton Berle?' They see us on the same tube and imagine we're all in the same bullpen."

Brinkley, who with teammate Chet Huntley celebrates the 10th anniversary with the "Huntley-Brinkley Report" this month, is convinced that the steady increase in its rating can be credited to its improvement as a news program and the fact viewers take them seriously, including the President of the United States.

...

"WE'RE NO LONGER a novelty and people have come to believe we are honest because we are. I have almost absolute independence. Nobody at NBC knows what I'm going to talk about until I do it. If some sponsor's cold pill is pronounced no good by the Food and Drug Administration, I would blast it on the air without a second thought," Brinkley maintains.

Sponsors don't even call the network to complain or comment on what Huntley and Brinkley are doing, as they've been known to do in the past.

The tide might be said to have turned in the network news-man's favor three years ago when Huntley-Brinkley and Walter Cronkite managed to rid themselves of those commercial "lead - ins" which called for them to say "... and now a word from Handy-Andy razor strops."

...

"WE'RE NOT starving or scared now. Our news program makes money for the network - lots of money. It's no longer a loss - leader," adds Brinkley "and this gives you lots of freedom."

It was Brinkley's own idea to be in California last week for a cursory look at and some reports on the state's coming gubernatorial race between Gov. Pat Brown and actor Ronald Reagan. Like most Easterners, Brinkley is fascinated with the phenomenon of an actor running for governor of the biggest-populated state and says:

There's really no reason why an actor shouldn't run for office, and I guess it happens in California because this is where most actors are. As for Ronnie, I think he's about as good a candidate as he was an actor, which is to say mediocre."

AS A TV personality himself, Brinkley understands how easy it is to become a political candidate in this electronic age. Both he and Chet Huntley have been asked to run for the U.S. Senate from their respective home states of North Carolina and Montana.

"It's easy to understand. With Chet and me the party chairmen deliver ready-made names and faces. I don't think Chet is interested and I politely said no. I'm probably too liberal for North Carolina anyway," says Brinkley.

The Brinkley news future is assured, of course, although he is not sure in what form.

WHAT HE DREAMS of quite often is getting away from the "hog - tied" five-nights-a-week and doing a deeper, more leisurely news program similar to his old Brinkley's Journal, which he had to give up when his and Huntley's NBC news spot expanded to the half hour three years ago.

"I deliberately won't go to Viet Nam," he says, "because it would mean being met at the Saigon airport with a microphone and having to talk about something I couldn't possibly know anything about until I'd had at least two weeks to look around."

Wages, Working Conditions

Musicians Threatening To Lay Down Instruments

By The Associated Press

Musicians from symphonic halls to discotheque dance floors are threatening in increasing numbers to lay down their instruments if their demands for more money and better working conditions are not met.

Dissatisfaction has spread from New York's night clubs and show spots to San Francisco's Concert Hall and in many cabarets and opera houses the show hasn't gone on.

The result has been empty orchestra pits, darkened stages and 11th-hour bargaining.

In New York City, a strike by members of Local 802 of the AFL-CIO American Federation of Musicians ended Tuesday night after the city's hotel association agreed to reduce their work week from five to six days and grant salary increases to a base pay of approximately $167.

The agreement, yet to be ratified by the membership, also provides arbitration of job security disputes, a major stumbling block.

During the two-day walkout the entertainment rooms and dance floors of some hotels were closed and Maurice Chevalier sang without accompaniment at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Members of the Philadelphia Orchestra have been on strike since their contract expired Sept. 15.

Twelve concerts in Philadelphia and one in Baltimore have been canceled. Orchestra members held a benefit concert Friday, led by conductor Leopold Stokowski, and raised $15,000 for the strike fund.

The members now make a minimum of $10,000 a year, plus a $2,000 recording fee, but they want $16,000 annually. The orchestra association has offered a five-year pact with a total minimum pay of $14,500 the last year. Negotiations have been sporadic.

Musicians in the San Francisco Symphony threatened a strike two years ago and the season was reinstated only after the Musicians Union signed a three-year contract providing $190-a-week for 30-week season. There have been indications of trouble when the contract expires.

Not all musicians are unhappy. Harmony was reported in Seattle, Wash., Boston, Los Angeles, Louisville, Ky., Atlanta, Ga., Cleveland, Ohio, Nashville, Tenn., Chicago, Detroit and Dallas, Tex.

Once A Pennsylvania Farm Boy

Sebastian S. Kresge, 99, Chain Store Owner, Dies

EAST STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Sebastian S. Kresge, millionaire chain store owner, died at East Stroudsburg General Hospital Tuesday night at age 99.

A hospital spokesman said Kresge, who retired as board chairman of the Kresge chain earlier this year, died of infirmities of age. He had been in the hospital since July.

Kresge, once a Pennsylvania Dutch farm boy, will be interred in a $75,000 mausoleum he had built two years ago outside nearby Kresgeville — a town named for the Kresge family.

A company spokesman said all 930 Kresge stores in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico will be closed Friday when funeral services will be held from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. at the Methodist church in Mountainhome, Pa.

Kresge's life was marked by frugality.

"I've never spent more than 30 cents a day for lunch in my life and it hasn't killed me," he once told a newsman.

As a philanthropist, the man who entered the dime store business with $8,000 and left it with more than $200 million contributed up to $65 million to his own foundation.

Kresge was born July 31, 1867, on a farm near Bald Mount, Pa., where, at the age of 14, a neighbor gave him a beehive.

In five years the youngster had five beehives, and gave the profits to his father. During a depression years of the 1890's, Kresge restored rusty stoves and managed to save $8,000.

He invested this in a store with J.G. McCrory in Memphis, Tenn. A year later, they bought a store in Detroit, and in 1899, Kresge traded his share in the Memphis store for complete control of the Detroit branch. This was the beginning of the Kresge chain.

In 1924 Kresge divorced Anna Harvey, whom he married 1897. Kresge's second marriage was to Dorie Mercer, an aspiring opera singer, but they were divorced four years later. In October 1928, he married Clara K. Swaine, a divorcee, and the two lived in Mountainhome until Kresge's recent health failure.

Survivors include the widow and five children from Kresge's first marriage. The children include his sons Stanley S. of Detroit, who replaced Kresge as board chairman.

Biographical sketch 3948 has been released.

Peace Corpsmen Win Delay Of Cut In Living Allowances

IBADAN, Nigeria (AP) — With help from a local political crisis, U.S. Peace Corps members in Nigeria have won postponement of a cut in their living allowances. But some of them say their bosses still don't understand them.

Peace Corps Director Jack Hood Vaughn, who rushed to Nigeria three months ahead of schedule after the volunteers threatened to strike, announced Tuesday no changes would be made in living allowances "until the situation in Nigeria returns to normal."

Tribal hostilities are threatening to split the nation. Observers feel it will be a long time before local politics returns to normal.

The corps members threatened last month to strike after reports that their living allowance of about $119 a month would be cut $5 to $15. With about 700 volunteers, the mission in Nigeria is the second largest in the world.

Since his arrival Oct. 8, Vaughn has held 19 meetings with the volunteers. He plans several more before leaving Oct. 25 for South Korea.

He said Tuesday that the proposed cut in living allowances would be postponed because prices are fluctuating so rapidly in the current uncertain political situation that it is impossible to work out a formula based on the cost of living.

The volunteers said the strike threats were made "in desperation" to get policymakers in Washington to hear their complaints. They protested that decisions were being made without consulting workers in the field.

"I think the Peace Corps missed the point of protest," said Joe Foster, 23, of Carmel, Calif. "They have been treating us like high school kids."

Johnson Accepts Hare Resignation

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — President Johnson accepted with genuine regret today the resignation of one of America's top career diplomats, Raymond Hare.

Hare rose through the Foreign Service to hold ambassadorial and other senior positions in a career spanning nearly 40 years. Recently he has been assistant secretary of state for Near Eastern and South Asian affairs.

In an exchange of letters made public by the traveling White House, Hare told the President he intends to become head of the Middle East Institute in Washington. He has long been an expert on Middle East affairs.

Hare, 65, said he has passed the retirement age and feels it is time to step aside "in favor of the many fine younger officers on their way up."

CINCINNATI (AP) — Nine persons have been arrested by suburban St. Bernard police on charges they allegedly used false names to buy paregoric, a narcotic, at drug stores.

Congressional Gains Seen For GOP In Ohio

CINCINNATI (AP) — House Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford says indications are that Republicans will pick up three to six congressional seats in Ohio in the November elections.

"If the elections were to be held tomorrow," Republicans would gain at least 40 congressional seats across the country, Ford said in a news conference Tuesday.

The Michigan Republican said he expects Republican Robert Taft Jr. to beat Democratic incumbent John J. Gilligan in Ohio's 1st District race.

Ohio Man Stabbed To Death In Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A man identified as Harry Newell Bosh, 42, of Mansfield, Ohio, was found stabbed to death here Tuesday night.

The man had been stabbed five times in the chest and abdomen. No weapon was found.

Two nearby residents told police they heard someone say: "No, wait, wait. No, wait." This was followed by a sigh. The body was found about a half-hour later.

Souvenir carnival beads were scattered around the body but it was not apparent whether they had any connection with the case.

Canada's first airmail flight was from Montreal to Toronto in 1919.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — When 12-year-old Robert Jimmy Bowers wanted a new bicycle he went to a bank for a loan. He got both the loan and the bike.

Jimmy works after school at a pizza place. He saved $30 shoveling snow and cutting grass, but needed another $10.

Jimmy wrote to Logan F. Wyrick, vice chairman of the University bank in Kansas City, to explain that he needed $10 to replace his old bike.

"All of a sudden I was thinking back 50 years and how I shined shoes to buy my first bicycle in Eldon, Mo.," said Wyrick.

So Wyrick made Jimmy a personal loan of $10, payable semiannually, at one per cent interest.

Last week, young Bowers, owner of a new black English racing bicycle, walked into the bank and made his first payment of $1.

ROME (AP) — The parting of the ways for Italian actress Gina Lollobrigida, 38, and her Yugoslav-born husband, Dr. Milko Skofic, comes next Monday.

Lawyers for the couple said the couple would appear then before a civil tribunal to ask for an order pronouncing their separation by mutual consent.

The couple has been married for 15 years. There is no divorce in Italy.

About 85 per cent of mumps cases occur in children 5 to 10 years of age.

Margarine consumption in the United States this year is expected to average 10.3 pounds per capita, up 4 per cent from 1965. Butter consumption is likely to slip 9 per cent to 5.9 pounds.

Junior Editors Quiz on VIOLINS

QUESTION: Why is the violin called the fiddle?

ANSWER: Although both words refer to the same instrument, fiddle is generally used by folk musicians, such as those who play at country dances. For this use, the fiddle is often held against the chest, rather than under the chin, as regular violinists do. The two words come from the Latin vitulari, to sing or rejoice. The Latin name of an instruments, vitula, changed in German to fidula, which led to the Anglo-Saxon fithele. That led to fidele and finally to fiddle. Meanwhile in Europe, vitula had changed to vielle, which became vyell or viol. The smalelst member of the viol family was called violino, from which we got violin. The ancestor of all these instruments was the rebec of about 1000 A. D. (1) which was pear-shaped and played with a bow. The body of the European vielle (2) swelled out at top and bottom more like a violin. With the viol (3) the shape became very violin-like, the real voilin (4) being perfected in the late 1600's in Italy. Junior Editors Quiz on VIOLINS

QUESTION: Why is the violin called the fiddle?

ANSWER: Although both words refer to the same instrument, fiddle is generally used by folk musicians, such as those who play at country dances. For this use, the fiddle is often held against the chest, rather than under the chin, as regular violinists do. The two words come from the Latin vitulari, to sing or rejoice. The Latin name of an instruments, vitula, changed in German to fidula, which led to the Anglo-Saxon fithele. That led to fidele and finally to fiddle. Meanwhile in Europe, vitula had changed to vielle, which became vyell or viol. The smalelst member of the viol family was called violino, from which we got violin. The ancestor of all these instruments was the rebec of about 1000 A. D. (1) which was pear-shaped and played with a bow. The body of the European vielle (2) swelled out at top and bottom more like a violin. With the viol (3) the shape became very violin-like, the real voilin (4) being perfected in the late 1600's in Italy. Violins were very popular in early England as dance instruments, which is why a fiddle is associated with the lighter side of violin playing.
